The Book Michael F. Suarez, H. R. Woudhuysen, 2013-10 This volume seeks to delineate the history of the production dissemination and reception of texts from the earliest pictograms of the mid 4th millennium to recent developments in electronic books Page xi
Words of Her Own Maroona Murmu, 2019-11-05 Words of Her Own situates the experiences and articulations of emergent women writers in nineteenth century Bengal through an exploration of works authored by them Based on a spectrum of genres such as autobiographies novels and travelogues this book examines the sociocultural incentives that enabled the dawn of middle class Hindu and Brahmo women authors at that time Murmu explores the intersections of class caste gender language and religion in these works Reading these texts within a specific milieu Murmu sets out to rectify the essentialist conception of women's writings being a monolithic body of works that displays a firmly gendered form and content by offering rich insights into the complex world of subjectivities of women in colonial Bengal In attempting to do so this book opens up the possibility of reconfiguring mainstream history by questioning the scholarly conceptualization of patriarchy being omnipotent enough to shape the intricacies of gender relations resulting in the flattening of self fashioning by women writers The book contends that there were women authors who flouted the norms of literary aesthetics and tastes set by male literati thereby creating a literary tradition of their own in Bangla and becoming agents of history at the turn of the century
