Jonsson,2026-01-22 This book builds upon landmark contributions by Lucien Hanks and Benedict Anderson to interdisciplinary scholarship on Southeast Asia particularly their essays on how worldview and indigenous notions of power have shaped society and politics Five anthropologists revisit these classic analyses situating local notions of power in contemporary dynamics through fieldwork areal comparisons and historical studies in this volume Their comparisons contrasts and ethnography in contemporary Thailand Laos and Indonesia examine local notions of power in relation to hierarchy socialism indigeneity Buddhism marginalization and political debates The case studies range in focus from intellectual property and religious freedom in Indonesia understandings of socialism and village state relations in Laos changing interpersonal dynamics in fieldwork encounters in Thailand that span four decades and to inclusiveness and pluralism in interethnic relations between hill and valley peoples across the region over millennia The case studies are accompanied by an essay on the lasting value of comparative regional and historical perspectives on Southeast Asia The essays challenge the mainstream focus on culture as meaning and instead situate cultural trends in history function and interpersonal negotiations Revisiting Ideas of Power in Southeast Asia will be valuable to researchers and students of Anthropology Politics Asian Studies International Relations and those interested in the history and geopolitics of Southeast Asia The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Anthropological Forum      The Master Idea Raymond Landon Bridgman,1899      Why Nations Rise Manjari Chatterjee Miller,2021-01-22 In Why Nations Rise Manjari Chaterjee Miller shows that some countries rise not just because they develop the military and economic power to do so but because they develop particular narratives about how to become a great power in the style of the great power du jour Miller not only examines the narratives in historical and contemporary cases but also shows patterns of active and reticent rising powers and presents lessons      Selections from Berkeley George Berkeley,1891      School work. with revisions. additions by J.W. God Particle Formation From Dark Energy And Human Being From This God Particle Dr. Sanjoy Kumar Dutta,2023-02-28 There are two types of energy that exist within space Dark Energy and Dark Matter Dark Energy is a homogenous eternal potential energy that exists below zero degree kelvin temperature in absolute static equilibrium phase of energy Dark Matter is the dynamic phase of Dark Energy above zero degree kelvin temperature as kinetic Energy Smallest unit of kinetic energy particle is a one dimensional photon and known as the God Particle All elements are formed by these God particles We human beings are also made with baryonic hydrogen atoms arranged in elemental and molecular forms that are all made with God particles Dark energy to Dark Matter conversion leads to contraction of energy space and Dark Matter to Dark Energy conversion leads to expansion of energy space like ice to water conversion and vice versa     Alciphron: or, The minute philosopher. 1732. Siris. 1744 George Berkeley,1871     Arcana Coelestia Emanuel Swedenborg,1873     The Rise of China and Chinese International Relations Scholarship Hung-jen Wang,2013-08-23 This book looks at the relationship between Chinese international relations IR scholarship and China's rise as a world power Specifically it addresses how China's rising international status since the early 1990s has shaped the country's IR studies and the different ways that Chinese IR scholars are interpreting that rise The author argues that the development of IR studies in China has been influenced by China's past historical experiences its recent change in status in world politics and indigenous scholarly interpretations of both factors Instead of treating Chinese IR scholars as value free social scientists the author shows how Chinese scholars as purposive strategic and emotional actors tend to manipulate existing mostly Western IR theories to support their policy propositions and identity statements This book represents one of few efforts to determine how local Chinese scholars are constructing IR knowledge how they are dealing with intersections between indigenous Chinese and imported IR theory and concepts and how Chinese scholars are analyzing their China in terms of its current rise to power
