Powerful Memories:

The Power of Mentorship for the 21st Century Don Boyer, 2006 Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber, 2016-01-19 DAD S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazzz Humber s epithaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood s shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad s Best Memories and Recollections Depending on Strangers David P Levine, 2021-03-01 We live in a world where our livelihood depends on our ability to relate to strangers The central quality that defines strangers is that they are unknown Because strangers are unknown they represent in the world outside the unknown self within The unknown self is the core of the personality considered as a potential to become something yet to be determined To be already known is to be determined prior to and independently of our presence in our lives At the outset of the process of taking form the individual is in a sense a stranger to self and to others The more this is the case the greater the openness of the process of self formation and the more marked the role of freedom from predetermination in that process Freedom from predetermination exists along three dimensions the free movement of thoughts and ideas or inner freedom the freedom to relate which is also the freedom not to relate and freedom in relating which is the possibility of maintaining secure self boundaries in relations with others In exploring freedom understood in this way Professor Levine considers such topics as the nature of inner freedom and its relationship to deliberation and choice stranger anxiety and its connection to group dynamics and social connection the internal factors that enable us to make the decisions that shape our lives and through our actions realize the ends embedded in our decisions how our memories shape our thought processes and therefore the choices we make and the lives we lead that result from them what makes it possible for us to live comfortably with and depend on people we do not know concern for the welfare of strangers and how our welfare can be secure in a world where we do not care about others and they do not care about us Memory, Microprocessor, and ASIC Wai-Kai Chen, 2003-03-26 Timing
