On the left, a white teacup with a blue floral design sits on a matching saucer. Next to it is a small white teapot. In the center, a large, open book lies flat, its pages yellowed with age. It aims to direct the attention of teachers to the need for creativity in education by dispelling the mystique surrounding it and the feelings of inadequacy or apprehension it may evoke in educators particularly in the Asia region. The book offers an introduction to creativity in writing the rationale for including it in language programmes the benefits it can bestow and the results it can produce as well as dealing with common objections to it. It divides creative writing into two major sections: poetry and stories followed by a copious set of varied classroom activities. For each activity a standard format is adopted to offer teachers maximum support in implementing the procedures including supplementary comments on each activity. It is distinct for its accessibility and clarity, its abundance of practical and ready-to-use classroom activities and its unique combination of theoretical underpinnings and practical implementation. This book will be useful to students, pre-service teachers and researchers who are new to the teaching of English Language both in the Asian context and in the wider world. It will also be an essential companion to practicing in-service teachers and Teacher Trainers to further sharpen their concepts and skills.
