Punishing Criminals Developing Community Based Intermediate Sanctions:

Punishing Criminals Malcolm Davies, 1993-07-28 Punishing Criminals is about sentencing theory and policy and the attempt to identify punishments other than imprisonment Davies argues for the need to develop more credible and effective community based intermediate sanctions that have the confidence of the public and the officials in the criminal system He shows how focus groups can be used to improve the process of consultation He sees the need to locate sentencing policy decisions within the wider context of the criminal justice process and presents empirical evidence from ten years study of the California criminal justice system He sets out a denunciatory retributive rationale for punishment which links sentencing aims with a community's confidence in different forms of punishment

History of Policing, Crime, Disorder, Punishment Peter Joyce, Wendy Laverick, 2023-07-19 This engaging textbook provides a broad and unique coverage of the key historical events that shaped ideas in criminology criminal justice and policing from the late seventeenth century to the early twenty first century in England and Wales It vividly illustrates the multi disciplinary nature of criminology and penology by providing important insights into the social and political issues that shaped the development and operations of the criminal justice system and its responses to both crime and disorder Using key text boxes this book highlights key people theorists foundational principles and events throughout Part One discusses the nature of crime and forms of punishment between 1689 and 1750 and the penological concerns regarding the aims of punishment Part Two focuses on crime and disorder between 1750 and 1850 examining the impact of urbanization on criminal activity and it considers the background and state responses to key episodes of public disorder Part Three covers the development of policing 1689 1856 and the contribution to policing made by reformers and the implementation of police reform Part Four deals with a number of issues affecting crime and punishment between 1850 and 1920 including episodes such as Irish Home Rule within the context of high policing It evaluates changes to the nature and role of prisons that occurred in this period This student friendly book contains end of chapter questions which summarise and enable further discussion

Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities Mary Bosworth, 2004-12-15 Click Additional Materials for downloadable samples The two volume Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities aims to provide a critical overview of penal institutions within a historical and contemporary framework The United States has the highest incarceration rate in the world a fact that has caused lawmakers advocates and legal professionals to rethink punishment policies as well as develop new policies on prisoner education and rehabilitation Issues of race gender and class are fully integrated throughout in order to demonstrate the complexity of the implementation and intended results of incarceration The Encyclopedia contains biographies articles describing important legal statutes and detailed and authoritative descriptions of the major prisons in the United States Comparative data and examples are employed to analyze the American system within an international context The Encyclopedia's 400 entries are all written by recognized authorities The appendix contains a comprehensive listing of every
