Powersharing Islam:

Power-sharing Islam? Azzam Tamimi, 1993      Power-sharing in the Divided Asian Societies Adam W.

Jelonek, 2023-05-15 Many countries in Asia are inhabited by multi segment societies diversified in terms of race religion language and economic status They have repeatedly provided the basis for analysis of the search for consensus in the construction of a political scene that would ensure the participation in power of each group Regardless of the chosen model the distribution of power in multi segment societies has always been characterized by a state of unstable equilibrium Practical solutions constantly evolved between consociationalism centripetalism federalism In extreme cases they led to political disintegration of states or to permanent domination of one of the segments most often based on authoritarian solutions In this volume a group of scholars specializing in countries of the region try to point out the dynamics of the unstable equilibrium of power sharing in particular Asian countries and analyze the trends occurring in them in the 21st century

Democratization And The Islamist Challenge In The Arab World Najib Ghadbian, 2019-03-13 The rise of Islamic movements in the Arab world over the last decade coincided with a move toward democratization throughout the region yet after hopeful early signs progress toward democratization has stalled or has even been reversed in all but a few countries This book explores the linkages between the move to democratize and the Islamist challenge focusing on the struggle among ruling elites secularists and the Islamists to define collective identity that is to define what common orientations unite the polity and how disagreements can be addressed particularly regarding the place of Islam in politics The author surveys democratization measures since 1980 and analyzes the nature of the Islamist challenge exploring the factors behind the rise of fundamentalism the agendas of various Islamic movements and Islamist concepts of democracy In a final section the author offers in depth case studies of Egypt and Jordan

Religion, Violence, and Local Power-Sharing in Nigeria Laura Thaut Vinson, 2017-10-26 Why does religion become a fault line of communal violence in some pluralistic countries and not others Under what conditions will religious identity as opposed to other salient ethnic cleavages become the spark that ignites communal violence Contemporary world politics since 9 11 is increasingly marked by intra state communal clashes in which religious identity is the main fault line Yet violence erupts only in some religiously pluralistic countries and only in some parts of those countries This study argues that prominent theories in the study of civil conflict cannot adequately account for the variation in subnational identity based violence Examining this variation in the context of Nigeria s pluralistic north central region this book finds support for a new theory of power sharing It finds that communities are less likely to fall prey to a divisive narrative of religious difference where local leaders informally agreed to abide by an inclusive local government power sharing arrangement

Institutional Engineering and Hybrid Power-sharing in Divided Societies Krzysztof Trzciński, 2024-08-12 Many societies are strongly divided especially in ethnic religious racial and ideological terms Such divisions are usually related to the existence of divergent interests that may lead to serious conflicts between groups and or between them and state authorities In order to limit them participation in decision making processes by members of different groups is needed However it is extremely difficult to establish and maintain effective power sharing arrangements This book examines the cases of Indonesia Nigeria Kenya and Burundi where hybrid models of power sharing have emerged combining specific elements of consociational and centripetal types It also explains the specificity life cycle and performance of different hybrid systems Index of Islamic Literature ,1994 The Muslim World Book Review ,1993

Konfliktregulierung durch Power-Sharing-Modelle Merle Vetterlein,2010 Islam, Postmodernism and Other Futures Ziauddin Sardar,2003-02-20 The first introduction to leading British Muslim intellectual author journalist and cultural commentator Zia Sardar The Islamic Revival Since 1988 Yvonne Y. Haddad,John L. Esposito,1997-07-16 Designed as a useful reference tool to help students educators and diplomats maneuver through scholarly literature as well as primary sources published in English between 1989 and 1994 this work seeks to help the researcher make sense of the explosion of literature on this often contentious topic In addition to surveying the literature on Islamic revival worldwide it provides commentary on literature pertaining to important topics such as the role of women in Islam Islamic economics and the migration of Muslims to western Europe and North America This work is a continuation of the first edition published by Greenwood in 1991 IThe Contemporary Islamic Revival R Governments policymakers and experts around the world are debating whether contemporary Islamic revival in particular Islamic Fundamentalism is a diverse and multifaceted phenomenon or a uniformly clear and present danger to be consistently and persistently repressed or eradicated Some propose that there are means of cooperation collaboration or co optation with those who adhere to it while others see it as a menace warning of a clash of civilizations and of an Islamic population explosion which poses a demographic threat to national security and world peace Africa Events ,1994 Index Islamicus ,2007 Social Sciences in Islamic Perspectives Javed Ahmad Khan,2001 Echo of Islam ,2010 Power-Sharing Ian O'Flynn,David O. Russell,2005-10-20 Publisher description Imposing Power-sharing Michael Kerr,2006 This book is a comparative analysis of power sharing agreements and peace processes in Northern Ireland and Lebanon examining parallel journeys both societies took through power sharing to civil war returning to power sharing again It criticises and builds on the consociational democracy literature and takes an international perspective arguing that the external states with an interest in these ethno national conflicts largely determined the outcome of their power sharing accords It evaluates and contrasts the imposition of power sharing as a means to regulate ethnic conflict in a democratic environment with a non democratic one What makes the book unique is its ability to compare for the first time in print the ethnic conflicts and power sharing agreements in both countries The sources used are based on exclusive access in the UK Ireland and Lebanon with over 125 interviews conducted for the book This timely publication brings the situation in both parts of the world up to date and evaluates the costs and benefits of external intervention in divided societies by regional or international powers Theology
