Warren,2015-11-06 Includes 12 maps 12 photos and 2 charts THE seminal study of the Allied large scale airdrops of the Second World War in the European Theater The first combat airborne missions in history were flown by the Germans in 1940 Recognizing the possibilities of such operations the British and Americans followed suit The first British mission was flown in February 1941 and the first American mission was flown from England to Oran Algeria on 8 November 1942 as part of the Anglo American invasion of North Africa Other later missions principally in the Mediterranean region provided the American troop carriers with an apprenticeship in airborne warfare However until the summer of 1944 no force larger than a reinforced regimental combat team was flown into action in any Allied mission In World War II the only Allied airborne operations employing more than one division took place in the invasion of Normandy the unsuccessful attempt to win a bridgehead across the Rhine at Arnhem and the successful crossing of the Rhine at Wesel Consequently the study of airborne missions in the European Theater of Operations is of particular importance for the light it throws on the planning and performance of large scale airborne assaults Into Fields of Fire Austin J. Buchanan, W. L. George Collins, 2004-11-29 This story is taken from notes Austin Buck Buchanan wrote in notebooks he carried in his pocket all during World War II Buck is no longer with us W L George Collins edited and compiled Bucks notes into a manuscript that became this book Here you will ride with Buck as he flies his plane through a field of fire so intense that one shell blows a hole in the plane big enough for a man to go through and uncountable bullet holes perforated the plane All aircraft controls are shot out except elevator and ailerons You will ride with him as he manages to complete his mission and bring his barely flying plane back to England And you will ride with him through hundreds more such harrowing trips in his C 47 with no armor plate and no guns into other fields of fire and often impossible weather W L George Collins was a pilot in the same Troop Carrier Group as Buck His writings have been published in the United States Europe and the Middle East He was awarded the George Washington Honor Medal by Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge among other writing awards Into the Valley Charles Hutchinson Young, 1995

Wolfe, 2016-11-11 In Green Light Martin Wolfe gives us the big picture of World War II airborne warfare in Europe through the lens of one unit a squadron typical of some sixty others Troop carrier squadrons delivered paratroopers behind enemy lines tugged gliders into battle zones and between combat operations freighted up to the front everything from food to artillery shells and carried back wounded infantrymen and newly freed slave laborers Wolfe's firsthand account is an engaging and informative narrative that goes beyond the facts to investigate the feelings of the tightly knit unit He also describes the management and training techniques that prepared the squadron for its role in four of the five main invasions of Nazi Europe In all the literature about World War II this is the first account to show how all levels of a squadron functioned clerks as well as pilots maintenance mechanics as well as flying crew chiefs the mess hall as well as headquarters In addition Wolfe's is the first book to show the interplay between unit experience and high command theory what units like the 81st Troop Carrier Squadron could actually accomplish and how concepts of airborne warfare changed at Supreme Headquarters He explains why and how it was not until the last airborne invasion in March 1945 that the full potential of the troop carrier was reached Wolfe melds the recollections of ninety veterans of this squadron with a general history of Allied airborne forces in World War II Through their words Green Light paints vivid portraits of the real men of the war not the Rambos or Sad Sacks of popular culture And through the retelling of their experiences the book shows that the truism war is hell does not hold for all soldiers all the time Green Light!: A Troop Carrier Squadron's War From Normandy to the Rhine
