Purpaleanie And Other Permutations:

Purpaleanie and Other Permutations Sietze Buning, 1978 Not Sure John D. Suk, 2011-09-02 In 2002 while touring North America with his wife in an RV John Suk lifelong Christian longtime pastor and noted leader in the Christian Reformed Church experienced a crippling crisis of faith He emerged from that dark time with a strange new gift doubt In Not Sure Suk takes readers on an eyes wide open deeply personal voyage through the past and present of Christian belief reexamining Christian faith in his own life and in fifteen centuries of Christian history through a skeptic s eyes He exposes major pitfalls of modern Christian movements and questions what he considers to be faulty paradigms the personal relationship with Jesus the health and wealth gospel and traditional ethnicity based belief systems In the end he is left clinging to what is for him a truer wiser kind of faith in Jesus Christ faith that struggles and lives with doubt Faithful Imagination in the Academy Janel M. Curry, Ronald A. Wells, 2008-08-22 In the past thirty years there has been a sea change in North American intellectual life regarding the role of religious commitments in academic endeavors Driven partly by post modernism and the fragmentation of knowledge and partly by the democratization of the academy in which different voices are celebrated the appropriate role that religion should play is contested Some academics insist that religion cannot and must not have a place at the academic table others insist that religious values should drive the argument Faithful Imagination in the Academy takes an approach based on dialogue with various viewpoints claiming neither too much nor too little All the authors are seasoned academics with many significant publications to their credit While they all know how the academy operates and how to make worthwhile contributions in their respective disciplines they are also Christians whose religious commitments are reflected in their intellectual work The Arts, Community and Cultural Democracy NA NA, 2016-04-30 This interdisciplinary and international collection explores the role of the arts in shaping contemporary religion and politics The authors ask about the future of viable communities and democratic cultures in a postmodern world looking for clues in artistic practices and institutions and their impact on how people create history and interpret texts The collection shows that the arts are central to struggles over the shape of society in the new millennium Earthkeeping in the Nineties Peter De Vos, 1991 Ever since its original publication over a decade ago Earthkeeping has presented a thought provoking biblically based call for responsible stewardship In view of the continuing environmental crisis worldwide and in light of increased ecological awareness in recent years the book s message regarding earthkeeping is now more pertinent than ever Receiving the Day Dorothy C. Bass, 2019-03-01 Embrace time as a gift not an obstacle Receiving the Day invites us to open the gift of time to dwell in the freedom to rest and worship that God intends for us and for all creatures In this book Dorothy C Bass shows how Christian practices for rest and worship continually welcome us into a way of life attuned to the love of God neighbor earth and self Bass does not aim to provide clear instructions for creating a schedule that solves all our puzzles about how to live in time Rather convinced that Christian faith bears great wisdom about time Bass offers an account of the weekly practice of keeping sabbath along with other practices by which Christians have sought to live faithfully in time These practices have been lived by diverse communities of faith across centuries and cultures Through them we can learn to dwell more graciously attentively and faithfully within the hours and days we have We can also learn to share the gift of time gladly and gratefully with others in and for this world God loves
