Sony vs Samsung Sea-Jin Chang, 2011-02-25 Sony vs Samsung is business history at its best. It explores the divergent fortunes of these two electronics giants in the last decade and identifies the true reasons behind Sony's decline and Samsung's rise. Contrary to popular belief, Chang shows that success or failure does not simply arise from different strategies. Rather, it emerges from major decisions that are deeply rooted in the companies' organizational processes and their executives' political behavior. This book is a must read for any senior executive. Constantinos Markides, Robert P. Bauman, Professor of Strategic Leadership and Chairman, Strategy Department, London Business School. Sea Jin Chang has produced that rarity in a business book: one that is as valuable to practicing managers as it is insightful to academic researchers. In this fascinating comparison of two modern global giants, he applies his high-resolution research microscope to their changing fortunes by dissecting their contrasting strategies and providing interesting insights into their divergent organizational processes and management practices. This is a very valuable contribution to the international business literature. It will end up in as many corporate boardrooms as faculty seminars. Christopher A. Bartlett, Thomas D. Casserly, Professor Emeritus, Harvard Business School. Sea Jin Chang has written a fascinating comparison of Sony and Samsung that will be valuable to anyone interested in strategy, organizations, or international business. The interwoven and very detailed case studies of two very different companies in overlapping industries illuminate problems such as adaptation to technological change, analog to digital, organizational flexibility, and globalization. His attempt to analyze both strategic development and implementation is successful and very useful. Both academics and practitioners will learn a lot from this book. Stephen J. Kobrin, William Wurster, Professor of Multinational Management, The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania. Refreshingly original and entertaining, this book analyzes major strategic decisions of Samsung and Sony and highlights organizational processes and top management leadership that have shaped their performances. This is a must read for all executives who want to understand the strengths and weaknesses of Asian competitors. It also provides penetrating insights to other Asian companies with global ambitions. New College Durham, New College Durham, Leeds Metropolitan University. Language: English. Abstract: The purpose of this project was to analyse to what extent gender equality has been achieved, which barriers still exist in female employment, and to evaluate opportunities for women in the UK in comparison to those in Germany. The author reviewed a wide array of sources such as studies, laws, and articles, but the main analysis was done on the basis of extensive data that has been collected by the OECD and the World Economic Forum Based on those findings gender gaps concerning labour force participation occupational sectors and types of work as well as wages and pensions were identified for both countries More specifically this paper provides information on the main barriers for women in employment the most important of which are male-dominated corporate cultures and discrimination Especially mothers experience barriers like the lack of affordable childcare insufficient flexible working options or the fact that people who use those are disadvantaged as well as unequal contribution of unpaid work and childcare despite laws that allow fathers to participate more in family life During the whole project the applicability of theories such as the Glass Ceiling the Sticky Floor or the Opt Out Revolution has been tested in order to identify reasons for inequality Furthermore measures which have already been taken against the existing barriers were described and some that could be taken in the future were suggested Differences between conditions for women in Germany and the UK have been analysed compared and evaluated with the result that the UK offers slightly better chances but both countries achieve quite different results in particular categories Depending on which aspects a woman puts emphasis on this thesis can help to decide which country is best to live and raise a family in
