Women in the South love football but as a whole they know very little about the game itself I decided to write a blog to teach women about college football Followers asked questions and I answered If they asked something I didn t know I did the research and I asked questions of my friends who had played college football Eventually I was asked to do a workshop for a large group So I assembled a PowerPoint presentation and set my fees Local radio featured the blog on their website and sports talk personalities took my calls on air Week by week the blog grew and information I assembled became the core of this book I continue to update it to reflect the changes in rules and systems I am a small town girl who grew up returned to her roots and found a way to share something novel and fun I know that somewhere this season a woman s increased football knowledge might just make her feel empowered in this male dominated world of football More importantly she might enjoy this past time that consumes southern culture a little more because she s better informed I hope you enjoy Southern Girls College Football Guide
