The Little White Box of Karatax Sue'z, 2019-03-13 Once Charlotte discovers the little white box glistening in the sand on the beach across the road from their new home she and her two older siblings Chloe and Hudson come together with the most unassuming couple ever before to be met These two new friends by the way are named Max and Minty and are found to be living inside the little white box which means they re only one centimeter tall Seriously How astonished are the three children when they realize that Max and Minty the inhabitants of the little white box have actually been planning and waiting to be discovered just the way it happened Together with Max and Minty they learn to begin channeling their gifts of Karatax awaiting them and over time they become acquainted with their new paths Now although the children are human just like us Max and Minty are not they are known as nuumahs They dwell in a small town named Karrak along with so many other nuumahs who have been all together involved in a war that has been raging for at least a millennia This battle has been waged against an evil foe called suulids which is the negative of themselves So just as humans have good and bad folk all around us so do they except in Karrak they have an actual name for them When the children realize they have a major part to play not only by being partners with Max and Minty s Karatax but also because they re human it actually adds to their strength especially when the Karatax begins to enchant them one by one beginning with their destinies Max and Minty continue on with the fight between the nuumahs and the suulids slowly bringing in these three gifted children to become as powerful as they are The children hold an ultimate strength of their own against the suulids just by being human combined
