Setting Global Standards S. Prakash Sethi, 2003-04-07 Learn how large corporations can make real improvements in their standard business practices without jeopardizing their competitiveness in the global marketplace S Prakash Sethi a preeminent business scholar and researcher on the activities of multinational corporations and global business issues outlines a number of highly effective approaches by which corporate leaders can improve their credibility and ensure the protection of the human and civil rights of their workers across the globe Order your copy today DA Pam, 1967 David Zwirner: 25 Years Richard Shiff, Robert Storr, 2018-10-23 Published on the occasion of the twenty five year anniversary of David Zwirner this book paints a picture of the gallery's growth and development through the lens of the artists that have shaped it Since its founding in 1993 David Zwirner has above all else been guided by its artist centric ethos Beginning with the gallery's early days on Greens Street in SoHo to its transition and expansion to Chelsea London the Upper East Side and Hong Kong this book captures David Zwirner's devotion to its inimitable roster of artists and estates The heart of the publication is a wide ranging dynamic selection of the gallery's standout exhibitions in many cases handpicked by David Zwirner himself Many of these exhibitions highlight the countless works that ended up in major museum and private collections around the world Also featured is an extensive gallery history that details all of the exhibitions by every artist and estate presented at David Zwirner accompanied by archival imagery With contributions by Richard Shiff and Robert Storr as well as a foreword by David Zwirner this publication offers rare insights into the growth of a commercial gallery through its long term commitment to artists American Aviation, 1954 Issues for include Annual air transport progress issue

Index of Technical Publications United States. Department of the Army, 1977 Sculpture and the Museum Christopher R. Marshall, 2017-07-05 Sculpture and the Museum is the first in depth examination of the varying roles and meanings assigned to sculpture in museums and galleries during the modern period from neo classical to contemporary art practice It considers a rich array of curatorial strategies and settings in order to examine the many reasons why sculpture has enjoyed a position of such considerable importance and complexity within the institutional framework of the museum and how changes to the museum have altered in turn the ways that we perceive the sculpture within it In particular the contributors consider the complex issue of how best to display sculpture across different periods and according to varying curatorial philosophies Sculptors discussed include Canova Rodin Henry Moore Flaxman and contemporary artists such as Rebecca Horn Rachel Whiteread Mark Dion and Olafur Eliasson with a variety of museums in America Canada and Europe presented as case studies Underlying all of these discussions is a concern to chart the critical importance of the acquisition placement and display of sculpture in museums and to explore the importance of sculptures as a forum for the expression of programmatic statements of power prestige and the museum's own sense of itself in relation to its audiences and its broader institutional aspirations Icons of Beauty Debra N. Mancoff, 2010 From images of Eve to Cindy Sherman's self portraits from Cleopatra to Madonna from ancient goddesses to modern celebrities this work offers an overview of the most revered icons of female beauty in world art from pre history to the present What gives beauty such fascinating power Why is beauty so easy to recognize but so hard to define Across cultures and continents and over the centuries the standards of beauty have changed but the desire to portray beauty to praise beauty and to possess beauty has never diminished This set offers insight as to how we can use perceptions of beauty to learn about world cultures both past and present Each chapter looks at an individual work of art to pose a question about the power of beauty What makes beauty modern What is the influence of celebrities How do women portray their own beauty in a different manner than men In depth profiles of the icons reveal how specific ideas about beauty were developed and expressed offering a full analysis of their history cultural significance and lasting influence In addition to renowned works of art it also looks at icons in literature film politics and contemporary entertainment Interdisciplinary and multicultural in its approach chapters inside this set also feature sidebars on provocative topics and issues such as foot binding and body adornment myths and practices opinions and interpretations and even related films songs and even comic book characters
