The Social Science of Cinema James C. Kaufman, Dean Keith Simonton, 2014 This book compiles research from such varied disciplines as psychology economics sociology business and communications to find the best empirical research being done on the movies based on perspectives that many filmgoers have never considered Report of the Scientific Experiments Conducted in the Cleveland Public Schools for the Purpose of Ascertaining the Value of Healthy Conditions of the Mouth National mouth hygiene association, Cleveland, O., 1912 Ethics, Conflict and Medical Treatment for Children E-Book Dominic Wilkinson, Julian Savulescu, 2018-08-05 What should happen when doctors and parents disagree about what would be best for a child When should courts become involved Should life support be stopped against parents wishes The case of Charlie Gard reached global attention in 2017 It led to widespread debate about the ethics of disagreements between doctors and parents about the place of the law in such disputes and about the variation in approach between different parts of the world In this book medical ethicists Dominic Wilkinson and Julian Savulescu critically examine the ethical questions at the heart of disputes about medical treatment for children They use the Gard case as a springboard to a wider discussion about the rights of parents the harms of treatment and the vital issue of limited resources They discuss other prominent UK and international cases of disagreement and conflict From opposite sides of the debate Wilkinson and Savulescu provocatively outline the strongest arguments in favour of and against treatment They analyse some of the distinctive and challenging features of treatment disputes in the 21st century and argue that disagreement about controversial ethical questions is both inevitable and desirable They outline a series of lessons from the Gard case and propose a radical new dissensus framework for future cases of disagreement This new book critically examines the core ethical questions at the heart of disputes about medical treatment for children The contents review prominent cases of disagreement from the UK and internationally and analyse some of the distinctive and challenging features around treatment disputes in the 21st century The book proposes a radical new framework for future cases of disagreement around the care of gravely ill people

The Formulas of Popular Fiction Anna Faktorovich, 2014-09-22 This book creates a taxonomy for the major bestselling fictional genres romance e g authors Heyer Cartland Woodiwiss and Roberts religious and inspirational Corelli and Douglas mystery and detective Conan Doyle Christie and Mankell and science fiction horror and fantasy Wells Tolkien Orwell Niven King and Rowling Chapters look at a genre from its roots to its most recent works The structural patterns in the plot characters and setting of these genres are then explained The book also provides a critique of currently popular hyper formulaic hack unliterary writings that have multiplied in recent decades Special topics such as the publishing oligopoly and the resulting homogeneity among bestselling works and the steady movement from literary to unliterary fiction are also examined Methodological Naturalism and Planetary Humanism: A Worldview for the 21st Century Guido O. Perez, MD, 2011-09-30 This book reviews a Naturalistic worldview based on a scientific understanding of the world and the broad perspective of cosmic evolution We are the product of a long evolutionary process that has been marked by four pivotal events the Big Bang the appearance of life the emergence of mind and the evolution of culture The issue of whether or not the universe had a beginning remains undefined The origin of life from inanimate matter also remains undefined but the evolution of life forms by natural selection is supported by many lines of evidence The origin of mind and consciousness can be traced to the evolution of neurons in multicellular animals These cells have numerous extensions capable of forming connections and influencing the function of distantly located cells Most scientists adopt a monist physicalist view and reject the existence of substance dualism Evolutionary psychology holds that human nature is the result of our genes and their interaction with the environment Aided by their superior cognitive abilities and by the transmission of knowledge modern humans have created a rich culture Because we can not prove that everything is physical it is better to reject Ontologic Naturalism and embrace Methodological Naturalism This worldview has an ethical social and political dimension best described by Planetary Humanism a form of humanism that is not anthropocentric and is global and ecologic in scope

Scientific American, 1884 How to Become Famous Cass R. Sunstein, 2024-05-21 Fame is like lightning Taylor Swift Bob Dylan Leonardo da Vinci Jane Austen Oprah Winfrey all of them were struck Why What if they hadn't been Consider the most famous music group in history What would the world be like if the Beatles never existed This was the question posed by the playful thought provoking 2019 film Yesterday in which a young completely unknown singer starts performing Beatles hits to a world that has never heard them Would the Fab Four's songs be as phenomenally popular as they are in our own Beatle-infused world The movie asserts that they would but is that true Was the success of the Beatles inevitable due to their amazing matchless talent Maybe It's hard to imagine our world without its stars icons and celebrities They are part of our culture and history seeming permanent and preordained But as Harvard law professor and passionate Beatles fan Cass Sunstein shows in this startling book that is far from the case Focusing on both famous and forgotten or simply overlooked artists and luminaries in music literature business science politics and other fields he explores why some individuals become famous and others don't and offers a new understanding of the roles played by greatness luck and contingency in the achievement of fame Sunstein examines recent research on informational cascades network effects and group polarization to probe the question of how people become famous He explores what ends up in the history books and in the literary canon and how that changes radically over time He delves into the rich and entertaining stories of a diverse cast of famous characters from John Keats William Blake and Jane Austen to Bob Dylan Ayn Rand and Stan Lee as well as John Paul George and Ringo How to Become Famous takes you on a fun captivating and at times profound journey that will forever change your perspective on the latest celebrity's fifteen minutes of fame and on what vaults some to the top and leaves others in the dust Handbook of State Aid for Film Paul Clemens Murschetz, Roland Teichmann, Matthias Karmasin, 2018-04-01 This book is an analysis of the specificities of public film funding on an international scale It shows how public funding schemes add value to film making and other audio visual productions and provides a comprehensive analysis of today's global challenges in the film industry such as industry change digital transformation and shifting audience tastes Based on insights from fields such as cultural economics media economics media management and media governance studies the authors illustrate how public spending shapes the financial fitness of national and international film industries This highly informative book will help both scholars and practitioners in the film industry to understand the complexity of issues and the requirements necessary to preserve the social benefits of film as an important cultural good
