Australia 1944-45 Peter J. Dean, 2015-11-11 The years 1944 and 1945 were pivotal in the development of Australia s approach to strategy during the Second World War and beyond While the main battlefront of the Pacific War had moved further north Australian air land and sea forces continued to make a significant contribution to the Allied campaign and towards achieving Australia s strategic interests and objectives In New Guinea Australian operations secured territories and released men from service while in Borneo a highly successful campaign was clouded by uncertain motives and guestionable strategy Australia 1944 45 Victory in the Pacific examines this complex and fascinating period which has been largely under represented in Australian military history Peter Dean leads a team of highly regarded military historians in assessing Australian Allied and Japanese strategies the conduct of the campaigns in the Southwest Pacific Area and Australia s Global Defense Procurement and the F-35 Joint Strike Fighter Bert significant role in achieving victory Chapman, 2018-12-27 This book analyzes the development and evolution of the F 35 Joint Strike Fighter a multinational aircraft endeavor involving the U S and many of its allies The author provides a historical overview of jet fighter aircraft discussing the different generations of these planes and their technical characteristics as well as an outline of emerging international geopolitical and security trends the F 35 may see combat in By examining the role of defense industries domestic politics and governmental oversight of the Joint Strike Fighter in various countries the author concludes that this aircraft will be deployed in most of these countries to replace their aging jet fighter fleets and combat potential military aggression from China Russia and other revisionist international powers 75 Years Aloft: Royal Australian Air Force Air Training Corps: Australian Air Force Cadets, 1941-2016 Matthew Glozier, 2015-12-03 This book celebrates 75 years of Air Force cadet activity in Australia 1941 2016 The organisation has had a tremendous impact upon the lives of tens of thousands of Australians over our 75 year history Since 1982 it has enhanced the lives of young women as well as men The book begins in WWII with the need to pre train capable and committed keen lads Over 30 000 Australian boys were air cadets 1941 1945 with almost 13 000 going on to active service in the war Air Force cadets survived into peacetime to become an aviation focussed youth development organisation providing flying training in a military atmosphere with the aim of inspiring cadets to join the RAAF There are currently over 8 000 Air Force cadets and adult staff around Australia Aviation centred youth development in a RAAF service environment remains our central focus International Warbirds John C. Fredriksen, 2001-08-01 In depth descriptions and photographs of the aircraft of 21 nations presented with a unique human dimension that goes behind the machines to the people involved Invaluable for specialists accessible to enthusiasts International Warbirds An Illustrated Guide to World Military Aircraft 1914 2000 puts the most legendary fighter aircraft of the 20th century developed outside the United States on vivid display It offers 336 illustrated biographies of the most significant warplanes used in squadron service from World War I to the Balkan conflict including numerous models from

Great Britain France Russia and Japan as well as notable machines from Israel Canada China India Brazil and other nations Entries span the history and scope of military aircraft from bombers and fighters to transports trainers reconnaissance craft sea planes and helicopters with each capsule history combining nuts and bolts technical data with the story of that model s evolution and use Together these portraits offer an exciting well researched tribute to visionary designers and builders as well as courageous pilots and crews across the globe and tell a vivid tale of how air power became such a decisive factor in Sub Hunters Anthony Cooper, 2021-01-29 Excellent photographs from the Australian War Memorial collection Dramatic air battles over a turbulent sea hundreds of miles from land and without hope of rescue Striking U boat kills as concrete proof of operational successes Beautifully illustrated with many rare and unpublished photographs Of interest to aviation and military historians modellers gamers and flight simulator enthusiasts 1943 was the turning point in the Battle of the Atlantic when forces technologies and tactics turned against Germany's U boats The victory not only secured Britain's trans Atlantic lifeline to the United States but also enabled the vast build up in military forces in Britain necessary to launch D Day in 1944 The Allied battle to defeat the U boat menace was a combined effort by the naval and air forces of several Allied nations and this is the story of one part during the decisive mid war period Nos 10 and 461 Squadrons of the Royal Australian Air Force flew Sunderland flying boats from bases in Wales and Devon as part of RAF Coastal Command these two squadrons flew long range daylight missions over the eastern Atlantic patrolling Britain's southwest approaches They hunted and killed U boats transiting between their mid Atlantic hunting grounds and their bases in Bordeaux and fought furious air battles over the Bay of Biscay against Luftwaffe Ju 88 long range fighters tasked specifically with shooting them down These two Australian squadrons established a combat record Australian National Bibliography: 1992 National Library of Australia, 1988 Australian Defence Force Journal, 1998 Power Plus Attitude Alan Stephens, 1992-01-01 History of the Royal Australian Air Force in the context of military doctrine and contemporary ideas about the role of the air force Includes a select bibliography an index and comprehensive annotations The author is a senior research fellow at the RAAF Air Power Studies Centre Taking the Lead Mark Lax, 2020-03-01 As Australia withdrew from Vietnam in 1972 few in the Australian Defence Force none the least those in the Royal Australian Air Force could foresee the immense change that would sweep across the Service New and emerging international relationships changing Australian social attitudes and a growing sense of defence self reliance would all impact how the RAAF contributed to the application of air power in the defence of the nation and in supporting Australia's wider national interests For the first time Taking the Lead brings to the reader a comprehensive and authoritative study of how the RAAF matured over its third quarter century how it met the challenges faced and how it finally came of age able to take the lead when asked By 1996 plans were in place such that the RAAF was well on the way to becoming the world's first fifth generation air force by making a remarkable transition This volume also dispels the myth that the RAAF did little in the latter part of the twentieth century but train In fact the RAAF was at the forefront of operations as wide afield as the Sub Continent the Middle East Africa and South East Asia Then there was aid to the civil community as well as aid to those nations seeking help in wider Asia Pacific region Clever force restructuring for expeditionary operations amid the stress of downsizing by almost a third meant that future operations in the twenty first century were to be a success Taking the Lead is not just about aircraft bases and flying It considers the strategic environment of the era the factors that affected personnel and training how the RAAF s force structure advanced and how the RAAF managed its successes and failures For those seeking to learn more about their air force then this book is essential reading Taking the Lead covers this vital part of the RAAF s unfolding narrative and perfectly illustrates how the RAAF remained true to its motto Per Ardua ad Astra Through Adversity to the Stars Units of the Royal Australian Air Force: Ancillary units Australia. Royal Australian Air Force. Historical Section, 1995 The Battle of the Coral Sea 1942 Gavin Fry, 1993 The Royal Australian Air Force Alan Stephens, 2001 This volume examines the military obligation of government during the first century of the Commonwealth of Australia During this time the defense has endured two world wars as well as a series of other military engagements Although the reputation of military has become a significant factor in the lives and views of Australians the topic rarely receives public interest This book explains the complexities of this essential strand of the Commonwealth MacArthur's Airman Thomas E. Griffith, 1998 Thomas Griffith offers a critical assessment of George C Kenney's numerous contributions to MacArthur's war efforts He depicts Kenney as a staunch proponent of airpower's ability to shape the outcome of military engagement and a commander who shared MacArthur s strategic vision Australia I.
