Statutes of California and Digests of Measures California, 2000 International Law and Agroecological Husbandry John W. Head, 2016-11-25 Remarkable advances are being made in life science and agricultural research to reform the methods of food production particularly with regard to staple grain and legume crops in ways that will better reflect ecological realities However advances in science may be insufficient to ensure that these possibilities for agricultural reform are realized in practice and in a sustainable way This book shows how these can only be achieved through changes in legal norms and institutions at the global level Interdisciplinary in character the book draws from a range of issues involving agricultural innovation international legal history and principles treaty commitments global institutions and environmental challenges such as climate change to propose broad legal changes for transforming global agriculture It first shows how modern extractive agriculture is unsustainable on economic environmental and social grounds It then examines the potential for natural systems agriculture especially perennial polyculture systems for overcoming the deficiencies of modern extractive agriculture especially to offset climate change Finally it analyses closely the legal innovations that can be adopted at national and international levels to facilitate a transition from modern extractive agriculture to a system based more on ecological principles In particular the author argues for the creation of a Global Convention on Agroecology Modern Studies in Property Law - Volume 7 Nicholas Hopkins, 2013-07-31 This book contains a collection of peer reviewed papers presented at the ninth biennial Modern Studies in Property Law conference held at the University of Southampton in March 2012 It is the 7th volume to be published under the name of the conference The conference and its published proceedings have become an established forum for property lawyers from around the world to showcase current research in the discipline This collection reflects both the breadth of modern research in property law and its international dimensions Incorporating a keynote address by Lord Walker of Gestingthorpe retired Justice of the Supreme Court on The Saga of Strasbourg and Social Housing a number of chapters reveal the burgeoning influence of human rights in property law Other contributions illustrate an enduring need to question and explore fundamental concepts of the subject alongside new and emerging areas of study Collectively the chapters demonstrate the importance and relevance of property research in addressing a wide range of contemporary issues The Statutes of New Zealand New Zealand, 1894 Property Diversity and its Implications John Page, 2016-08-05 Property is more diverse than is usually assumed Developing the concept of property diversity this book explores the varied role of property in placed human landscapes In acknowledging the propertied diversity about us the book highlights the paucity of our settled contemporary assumptions of property as defined by private ownership Challenging this universalizing model the book analyses how this self limiting view produces critical blind spots in modern property discourse In response it offers a re conceptualization of property that matches the grounded reality of our rich and diverse relationships with land Integrating the plurality of real property types private public and common with inclusive understandings of both interest and ownership it thus identifies and substantiates an overarching theory of property diversity Drawing on studies from numerous jurisdictions including the USA New Zealand Australia and the UK its analysis of property as something more and indeed other than a place less abstraction provides an invaluable contribution to the contemporary law and theory of property Port-community Relationships ,2002 Written Comments on Joint Committee on Taxation Disclosure Study United States. Parliamentary Debates New Zealand. Parliament,1915 The Law Times ,1887 Public Service ,1912 White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility Eva Boodman,2022-01-10 White ignorance is a form of collective denial that aggressively resists acknowledging the role of race and racism It dominates our political landscape warps white moral frameworks and affective responses intervenes in white self conceptions and organizes white identities In this way white ignorance poses a problem for conceptions of responsibility that rely on individuals intentions causal contributions or knowledge of the facts As Eva Boodman shows our moral concepts for responding to racism are implicated in the process of racialization when they understand responsibility as the attribution of blame or absolution innocence or guilt White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility challenges these binary punitive moralities arguing that they reproduce racial harm by encouraging white people to seek innocence and the purification of moral taint instead of addressing the material conditions of racial harm Instead Boodman claims the space of complicity as a place of anti racist possibility Linking the construction of whiteness to a racist punishment paradigm this book makes the case for a different way of responding to harm as necessary for dismantling the moral racial political and affective constructs that keep racial capitalism in place
