Congress, 1992 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Space/aeronautics, 1963 EASTCON Record, 1968 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications, 1993 The Quest for Extraterrestrial Life Donald Goldsmith, 1980 The New Walford Guide to Reference Resources Ray Lester, 2005 The New Walford highlights the best resources to use when undertaking a search for accurate and relevant information saving you precious time and effort For those looking for a selective and evaluative reference resource that really delivers on its promise look no further In addition to print sources The New Walford naturally covers an extensive range of e reference sources such as digital databanks digital reference services electronic journal collections meta search engines networked information services open archives resource discovery services and websites of premier organizations in both the public and private sectors But rather than supplying a list of all available known resources as a web search engine might The New Walford subject specialists have carefully selected and evaluated available resources to provide a definitive list of the most appropriate and useful With an emphasis on quality and sustainability the subject specialists have been careful to assess the differing ways that information is framed and communicated in different subject areas As a result the resource evaluations in each subject area are prefaced by an introductory overview of the structure of the relevant literature This ensures that The New Walford is clear easy to use and intuitive Publisher Connecting Link, 1994 China World Bank, 1993 The Republic of Korea's industrial policy has directed that nation's economy through nearly three decades of spectacular growth But the authors of this paper maintain that this policy is showing signs of being outmoded The time has come the authors argue for the Korean government to stop managing the economy s structural development and to redefine the responsibilities of business and government Under this proposed compact the allocation of resources would shift from the government to the private industrial and financial sectors The transformation of the government bureaucracy from an ad hoc policy role to one of a transparent and predictable regulator is a key to the success of this undertaking These new directions would present the government with enormous challenges Greater competitive discipline and regulatory oversight would be required While dealing with the complexities of the transition the government would have to maintain macroeconomic stability and the momentum of savings and investment For comparison the study examines the industrial economies of France Germany Japan and the United States which underwent similar shifts Science Abstracts ,1962 International Aerospace Abstracts ,1997 Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1993-08 Guidance, Navigation, and Control Subsystem Equipment Selection Algorithm Using Expert System Methods Cheryl L.
