Daise,2019-12-26 Michael A Daise identifies literary features found in six quotations in the Fourth Gospel suggesting they should be revisited as clusters rather than as discrete units Three quotations are the only ones whose introductory formulae explicitly ascribe them to Isaiah three are the only ones cast as being remembered by Jesus disciples and each of these groupings forms an inclusio within the Book of Signs which when combined with the other produces a chiasmus to Jesus public ministry Daise examines these clusters in three studies addressing their exegetical issues and theological implications After an introductory apologia for an historical critical and theological approach the first two studies distil narrative themes embedded in the Isaianic and remembrance inclusios The third study then reconstructs the synthesis of these themes created by the chiasmus and translates its key elements into theological categories Daise concludes that while the Isaianic inclusio brings closure to the Book of Signs by disclosing the angelic cause of the Jews unbelief the remembrance inclusio creates an anticipation of the Book of Glory by casting Jesus as poised to establish a new dynasty with the casting out that angelic cause Daise further argues that this broader storyline carries ramifications for an array of motifs in the Fourth Gospel s theological taxonomy in particular its christology soteriology eschatology ecclesiology and pneumatology The Imperial edition [of the works of C.
