Setting The Record Straight About Ohare The Hero:

Fateful Rendezvous John B Lundstrom, Steve Ewing, 2012-04-15 Fighter pilot Butch O Hare became one of America's heroes in 1942 when he saved the carrier Lexington in what has been called the most daring single action in the history of combat aviation. In fascinating detail the authors describe how O Hare shot down five attacking Japanese bombers and severely damaged a sixth and other awe inspiring feats of aerial combat that won him awards including the Medal of Honor. They also explain his key role in developing tactics and night fighting techniques that helped defeat the Japanese. In addition the authors investigate events leading up to O Hare's disappearance in 1943 while intercepting torpedo bombers headed for the Enterprise. First published in 1997 this biography utilizes O Hare family papers and U S and Japanese war records as well as eyewitness interviews. It is essential reading for a true understanding of the development of the combat naval aviation and the talents of the universally admired and well liked Butch O Hare. Setting the Record Straight about O'Hare, the Hero Herman Backlund, 1993-01-01 Newsletter, 1995 Solution Focused Harm Reduction Seán Foy, 2018-01-30 This is the first book to explain the many synergies between solution focused brief therapy SFBT and harm reduction HR. Seán Foy discusses how these two approaches are complementary and when used in conjunction create a novel way of approaching addiction work. The book covers several detailed case studies examining how the concepts and theories of both approaches are intertwined to enhance and deepen the work undertaken with people who misuse and abuse substances. It will be of great interest to scholars of psychotherapy, social work, social care, addiction, nursing and health care as well as to practitioners seeking a clearer understanding of solution focused brief therapy and harm reduction and how to apply these to case work with problematic drinkers and drug users. The Tin Soldiers Stephen Nicholls, 2007-08-24 John Crisp, a man fed up with the daily grind of London life, retires with his wife to the rugged and lonely coast of Cornwall. The house he buys to while away his retirement years was built on the site of an army base used during the Second World War.
