Seven Stories Of Modern Japan:

The Smile of a Ragpicker Paul Glynn, 2014-09-29 Following his acclaimed work A Song for Nagasaki in which Fr Paul Glynn told the powerful story of Dr Nagai a Christian convert of remarkable courage and compassion who ministered to victims of the atomic bomb attack on his city The Smile of a Ragpicker brings us the heroic story of Satoko Kitahara a young beautiful woman of wealth who gave up her riches and comfort to be among the ragpickers in the Tokyo slums Motivated by her newfound faith in Christ she plunged into the life of the poor regardless of the consequences As Satoko helped the poor with their material and spiritual needs she also helped them to recover their self respect and dignity Satoko's story demonstrates how one person's life can affect so many others Every day Satoko encountered Christ in some new and challenging way calling the Church back to identification with the poor Like Dr Nagai she expressed her faith through the sensitivity and beauty of her own Japanese culture Satoko died a young woman in dire poverty Yet her death mourned by many thousands reflected her triumphant life of deep Christian faith and charity This is a powerful story of reconciliation and healing between people of different social economic and religious backgrounds inspired by a frail young woman of luminous faith Illustrated with photos
