paradigm of his working methods a variety of practical exercises designed to give an insight into Lepage's creative process As a first step towards critical understanding and as an initial exploration before going on to further primary research Routledge Performance Practitioners are unbeatable value for today's student The Cinema of Robert Lepage Aleksandar Dundjerovich, 2003 The Cinema of Robert Lepage is the first critical study of one of the most striking artists of Quebecois and Canadian independent filmmaking The book examines Lepage's creative methods of filmmaking in their cultural and social context and argues that his work cannot be seen separately from his oeuvre as a multidisciplinary artist and challenges the notions that Lepage should be considered only in the terms of Quebecois film tradition The author explores such themes with Lepage in a new exclusive and detailed interview Robert Lepage / Ex Machina James Reynolds, 2019-02-07 Robert Lepage Ex Machina Revolutions in Theatrical Space provides an ideal introduction to one of our most innovative companies and a much needed and timely reappraisal of Lepage's oeuvre International interdisciplinary and intercultural to the core Ex Machina have negotiated some of the most complex creative and cultural challenges of our time This book maps the story of that journey by analysing the full spectrum of their richly varied work Through a comprehensive historiography of productions since 1994 Robert Lepage Ex Machina offers a detailed picture of the relationship between director and company while connecting Ex Machina to culturally specific features of Quebec and its theatre This book reveals for the first time how overlooked aspects of creativity and culture shaped the company's early work while installing a dynamic interplay between director and company that would spark a unique and ongoing evolution of praxis Central to this re-evaluation of practice is the book's identification of an architectural aesthetic at the heart of Ex Machina's work an aesthetic which provides its artistic and political centres of gravity Moreover this architectural aesthetic powers the emergence of concrete narrative as a new and distinctive mode of theatrical storytelling uniting story and space body and technology content and form and demanding that we discover the politics of these performances in the energetic gestures of theatre design and space itself Drawing on extensive interviews with Lepage Ex Machina personnel and collaborative partners Robert Lepage Ex Machina calls upon us to revise both our creative and critical perceptions of this vital and distinctive practice The Seven Streams of the River Ota [theatre Program], 1996 Theatre program Die sieben Ströme des Flusses Ota (The seven streams of the river Ota), Ex Machina, Kanada, regie Robert Lepage, [Konzeption Éric Bernier, Normand Bissonnette, Rebecca Blankenship et al.], 1996 Tropes for the Past Kuisma Korhonen, 2006 In the last decades there has been an intense debate on the relationship between literature and historiography often linked to the debate between empiricists and postmodernists The aim of this collective work is to address this debate and to search for new ways of thinking and encountering the past The key note for the book comes from Hayden White one of the leading academic figures whose role in launching the contemporary history literature debate has been crucial It is followed by three critical readings of his work all suggesting new ways to apply or challenge his views In other chapters of the book history literature question is then addressed from three points of view narrativity history as literature and literature as history Tropes for the Past is an ideal introduction to the literature historiography debate and Hayden White s role in it It will be of use for all students and scholars in the philosophy of history and in historically oriented literary cultural and social studies The seven streams of the river Ota, von Robert Lepage-Ex Machina, [conception Eric Bernier, Normand Bissonnette, Rebecca Blankenship et al., direction Robert Lepage]. ,1995 The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners Franc Chamberlain,Bernadette Sweeney,2020-08-16 The Routledge Companion to Performance Practitioners collects the outstanding biographical and production overviews of key theatre practitioners first featured in the popular Routledge Performance Practitioners series of guidebooks Each of the chapters is written by an expert on a particular figure from Stanislavsky and Brecht to Laban and Decroux and places their work in its social and historical context Summaries and analyses of their key productions indicate how each practitioner s theoretical approaches to performance and the performer were manifested in practice All 22 practitioners from the original series are represented with this volume covering those born after 1915 This is the definitive first step for students scholars and practitioners hoping to acquaint themselves with the leading names in performance or deepen their knowledge of these seminal figures Quel corps? Hans Belting,Dietmar Kamper,Martin Schulz,2002 Canadian Culture and Literature University of Alberta.
