The Seven Seas: Exploring the World's Ocean Linda Vieira, Illustrations by Higgins Bond, The Seven Seas Linda Vieira, 2003-04-01 The ocean is an endless wonder that has shaped the progress of civilization for all of human history Thousands of years ago the sea retreated and exposed more than 2 million acres of dry land enabling early man to migrate from Asia and eventually settle North and South America Centuries later explorers such as Christopher Columbus and Ferdinand Magellan braved the waters as they searched for shorter ocean routes to new worlds When in 1800 all surface areas of the ocean had been explored scientists turned their gaze to the deepest recesses of the sea discovering thousands of species of plants and animals there The sea remains our planet's largest source of food fuel and energy holding the very key to life for sea creatures and people alike World Oceans David E. Newton, 2021-02-15 World Oceans A Reference Handbook offers an in depth discussion of the world's oceans It discusses the marine life that is dependent on the sea as well as the problems threatening the health of the ocean and its wildlife World Oceans A Reference Handbook opens with an overview of the history of human knowledge and understanding of the oceans and cryosphere along with related scientific technological social political and other factors The second chapter presents and discusses about a dozen major problems facing the Earth's oceans today along with possible solutions The third chapter provides interested individuals with an opportunity to express their thoughts and ideas on today's ocean issues and remaining chapters provide additional resources such as a bibliography a chronology and a glossary to assist the reader in her or his further study of the issue Where most books for young adults learning about world oceans take a purely expository treatment this book provides readers with additional information as well as resources allowing them to learn more and inform further study of the subject The World's Oceans Rainer F.
