Fighting Words John Renard, 2012-12-31 One of the critical issues in interreligious relations today is the connection both actual and perceived between sacred sources and the justification of violent acts as divinely mandated Fighting Words makes solid text based scholarship accessible to the general public beginning with the premise that a balanced approach to religious pluralism in our world must build on a measured well informed response to the increasingly publicized and sensationalized association of terrorism and large scale violence with religion In his introduction Renard provides background on the major scriptures of seven religious traditions Jewish Christian including both the Old and New Testaments Islamic Baha i Zoroastrian Hindu and Sikh Eight chapters then explore the interpretation of select facets of these scriptures focusing on those texts so often claimed both historically and more recently as inspiration and justification for every kind of violence from individual assassination to mass murder With its nuanced consideration of a complex topic this book is not merely about the religious sanctioning of violence but also about diverse ways of reading sacred textual sources

The Fate of Rome Kyle Harper,2017-10-02 How devastating viruses pandemics and other natural catastrophes swept through the far flung Roman Empire and helped to bring down one of the mightiest civilizations of the ancient world Here is the monumental retelling of one of the most consequential chapters of human history the fall of the Roman Empire The Fate of Rome is the first book to examine the catastrophic role that climate change and infectious diseases played in the collapse of Rome s power a story of nature s triumph over human ambition Interweaving a grand historical narrative with cutting edge climate science and genetic discoveries Kyle Harper traces how the fate of Rome was decided not just by emperors soldiers and barbarians but also by volcanic eruptions solar cycles climate instability and devastating viruses and bacteria He takes readers from Rome s pinnacle in the second century when the empire seemed an invincible superpower to its unraveling by the seventh century when Rome was politically fragmented and materially depleted Harper describes how the Romans were resilient in the face of enormous environmental stress until the besieged empire could no longer withstand the combined challenges of a little ice age and recurrent outbreaks of bubonic plague A poignant reflection on humanity s intimate relationship with the environment The Fate of Rome provides a sweeping account of how one of history s greatest civilizations encountered and endured yet ultimately succumbed to the cumulative burden of nature s violence The example of Rome is a timely reminder that climate change and germ evolution have shaped the world we inhabit in ways that are surprising and profound

The Encounter of Eastern Christianity With Early Islam Emmanouela Grypeou,Mark (Mark N.) Swanson,David Richard Thomas,2006 The contributions in this volume deal with crucial subjects of political and theological dialogue and controversy that characterized the varying responses of the Christian communities in the Byzantine Eastern provinces to the Islamic conquest and its subsequent impact on Byzantine society and history

East Rome, Sasanian Persia and the End of Antiquity James Howard-Johnston,2024-10-28 The last longest and most damaging of the wars fought between East Rome and Sasanian Persia 603 628 brought the classical phase of west Eurasian history to a dramatic close Despite its evident significance not least as the distant setting for Muhammad s prophetic mission this last great war of antiquity attracted comparatively little scholarly attention until the last decades of the twentieth century James Howard Johnston s contributions to the subject most of which were published in out of the way places one that on al Tabari is printed for the first time are brought together in convenient form in this volume They strive to root history in close observation of landscape and monuments as well as careful analysis of texts They explore the evolving balance of power between the two empires look at events through Roman Armenian and Arab eyes and home in on the climax of the final conflict in the 620s

From Ephrem to Romanos Sebastian P. Brock, 1999 It is often forgotten that many people in Late Antique Syria were bilingual in Syriac and Greek The 16 articles in this volume explore different aspects of the interaction between these two literary cultures exemplified in the works of two of the greatest Christian poets and hymnographers of the period Ephrem the Syrian and Romanos the Melode Among the topics covered are the legend of King Abgar and the origins of Christianity in Edessa Syriac texts on the finding of the Cross translations from Syriac into Greek and Greek into Syriac with specific studies on the Aristotle commentary tradition and Hunayn's translation of Hippocrates Aphorisms. The volume concludes with the case of a distinctive topos employed by Greek and Latin scribes but whose earliest and latest attestations are to be found in colophons of Syriac manuscripts.

Rome and Persia at War, 502-532 Geoffrey Greatrex, 1998. The first modern account of the conflict between the eastern Roman Empire and the Sasanian kingdom. Greatrex traces the background to the war investigating relations between Rome and Persia, the state of Roman defences in the East and the chaotic situation in Persia at the end of the 5th century. He then examines the sources and the war itself including the development of Roman defences and the attempts by both powers to secure control of the Transcaucasian kingdoms.

Studies on Hellenism, Christianity and the Umayyads Garth Fowden, Elizabeth Key Fowden, 2004. The present volume offers a partial presentation of research that has been prosecuted in one form or another over the past decade and more. Some early misguided ideas about the relationship between Hellenism and the Umayyads as manifest in the paintings of Qusayr Arma appeared in chapter 6 of Garth Fowden Empire to Commonwealth: Consequences of Monotheism in Late Antiquity 1993 while in chapter 6 of The Barbarian Plain: Saint Sergius between Rome and Iran 1999. Elizabeth Key Fowden looked at the relationship between Christianity and Islam in Umayyad al-Rusafa. A three year grant from the Aristeia programme of the Greek Ministry of Development General Secretariat for Research and Technology within the European Union's 3rd Community Support Framework has encouraged us to concentrate on specific aspects of these cultural interactions. A more rounded interpretation of the material with due emphasis on the wider Islamic environment will be published elsewhere.
