Federal Security Agency United States. Office of Education,1878      Feet First Walter A. Baran,2003 This is a story of a first generation son of immigrant parents who came to America after the turn of the century in the early 1900 s It traces the life of a boy who never lost sight of who he was or what was expected of him His formative years were spent during the great depression in an area that had little to offer but where much was expected even when the going proved difficult It is a story that disguises pathos as humor even though the humor is genuine It portrays a life fraught with difficulty but where each difficulty is overcome by sheer force of willpower The writer displays affection for his mother by portraying a person of such great strength and character that one must imagine a giant only to find a thin aging woman barely five feet tall Each segment of the story has its own unique appeal One episode dealing with the writer s description of life at a CCC camp is especially compelling It deals with Polish American boys interacting with the Catholic Church three thousand miles from home and is sure to bring a tear to the eye of even the hardest heart Although the entire piece is essentially esoteric it has meaning and purpose to anyone who survived that era Reviewed by Tom Topolski      Kwik-Sew's Sewing for Toddlers Kerstin Martensson,1992 Master patterns for a complete wardrobe in toddler sizes T1 T4 as well as appliques tips and ideas to add a personal touch      Farm Journal's Design-and-sew Children's Clothes Bomie Halpern,Kathryn Larson,1979      Asian Children at Home and at School Ghazala Bhatti,2002-01-04 This book is an ethnographic study of a comprehensive school in the south of England It explores the views of teachers Asian parents and their children concerning education and schooling Young people between the ages of 13 and 18 were studied at home and at school and their experiences form the main focus of the study The experiences of fifty Pakistani Bangladeshi and Indian families mostly of Muslim faith are studied with a view to discovering what parents expect from their children s school and how the teachers perceive their own role with regard to their students These young people are the first generation of Asians to be educated in Britain Their location in terms of their social class positions gender and ethnicity are inextricably bound together They describe how they see their past and their future This is the first study to take account of boys and girls in order to capture the complexity of their lived experiences
