Services To Young Families Program Review And Policy Recommendations:

Handbook of African American Psychology Helen A. Neville, Brendesha M. Tynes, Shawn O. Utsey, 2008-11-12 The Handbook of African American Psychology provides a comprehensive guide to current developments in African American psychology. It presents theoretical, empirical, and practical issues that are foundational to African American psychology. It synthesizes the debates in the field and research designed to understand the psychological, cognitive, and behavioral development of African Americans. The breadth and depth of the coverage in this handbook offers both foundational material and current developments. Although similar topics will be covered in this text that are included in other works, this will be the only work in which experts in the field write on contemporary debates related to these topics. Moreover, the proposed text incorporates other issues that are typically not covered in related books. The contributing authors also identify gaps in the literature and point to future directions in research training and practice.

Key Features: Contains the writings of renowned editors and contributors. The most well-respected and accomplished editors and authors in the area of African American psychology and psychology in general have come together to lend their expert analysis of issues and research in this field. Designed for course use. With a consistent format from chapter to chapter and sections on historical development, cutting-edge theories, assessment, intervention, methodology, and development issues, instructors will find this handbook appropriate for use with upper-level undergraduate and graduate-level classes. Offers unique coverage. The authors discuss issues not typically found in other books on African American psychology, such as ethics, certification, the gifted and talented, Hip Hop, and youth culture, common misconceptions about African Americans, and within-group differences related to gender, class, age, and sexual orientation.

Beyond Rhetoric DIANE Publishing Company, 1995-10. Presents the Commission's findings, conclusions, and recommendations. Part 1 focuses on the crisis facing the nation's children and families. Part 2 presents the Commission's agenda for the 1990s, organized into chapters focused on the broad policy areas that are most vital to children and families. Part 3 summarizes the Commission's vision for a better society and their recommendations for building the necessary commitment to achieve it. Photos and graphs.

Resources in Education, 1990 Social Work Practice with Children and Adolescents John S. Wodarski, 1987 FYI, 1983 FYI Resources on Local Government, 1983-87, 1988 Current Federal Policies and Programs for Youth, 1989. Designed to describe what the federal government does for youth, it summarizes youth policies, programs, and related expenditures, including 1990 budget proposals in five major departments: Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, Justice, and Defense.

Evaluating Initiatives to Integrate Human Services Jules M. Marquart, Ellen L. Konrad, 1996 A Guide for Developing Early Childhood and Family Education Programs Lois E. Engstrom, 1984 Services to Young Families Harriette Pipes McAdoo, Thomas M. Jim Parham, 1985. Examines assumptions that are held about why families become impoverished and dependent and factors that will move them out of dependency. Excerpt from foreword, page xvii.
