Serving Science And Society In The New Millenium Compass Series:

Millennial Culture and Communication Pedagogies Andrew Sutherland, Michael G. Strawser, 2018-11-15 This book examines the ways in which faculty and staff at the higher education level teach and communicate with their millennial students and colleagues The contributors address how millennials academic and non academic interests and everyday performances within and outside of higher education influence how faculty and staff communicate with them This book delves into how millennials can become more adaptable in their communication with others in society especially in higher education be it from different generations or cultures that may or may not communicate the way they do The contributors argue that millennial culture should be carefully studied by instructors researchers and administrators to create a better classroom and educational experience and also improve the level of communication among these constituencies

Place-Based Service Learning in Higher Education Shauna Reilly, Mark Neikirk, Samantha Langley-Turnbaugh, 2023-11-20 Place Based Service Learning in Higher Education Building Trust and Opportunities Over Time looks at the intersection of student research and community based learning in a concentrated location over a period of ten years This study examines the use of an urban neighborhood as a place based source for engagement partners and opportunities With a sustained programmatic commitment to the neighborhood Northern Kentucky University sought to build trust over a period of ten years with residents nonprofit agencies serving them and other stakeholders who in turn could generate a steady stream of engagement opportunities valued by the neighborhood and valuable to students learning Analysis found that this commitment indeed built trust with partners and produced mutually beneficial opportunities including lasting relationships impactful work in the community and retention of faculty and students
