Construction Conflict Management and Resolution Peter Fenn, Rod Gameson, 1992 This book brings together over 40 papers presented at the 1992 International Construction Conflict Management Resolution Conference held in Manchester UK Six themes are covered including alternative dispute resolution conflict management claims procedures litigation and arbitration international construction and education and the future With papers from arbitrators architects barristers civil engineers chartered surveyors and solicitors this book represents the first multi disciplinary body of knowledge on Construction Conflict and will act as a unique source of reference for both legal and construction professionals Set Off in the Construction Industry Neil F. Jones, 1991 The New Engineering Contract Arthur McInnis, 2001 The introduction of the New Engineering Contract NEC encourages a systematic approach to contracting which is multidisciplinary in nature and fully interlocked in form The NEC is intended by its supporters to be more flexible and easier to use than any current leading traditional standard forms of contract It is believed that these features reduce adversariality and disputes The NEC seeks to achieve this aim primarily through co operative management techniques and incentives built into the NEC s procedures This commentary analyses and evaluates these and related claims of innovation The New Engineering Contract A legal commentary examines the background to the NEC its design objectives structure procedures and likely judicial interpretation to determine whether it improves upon the traditional standard forms of contract Special attention is given in the commentary to the development and the significance of the principles underlying preparation of the NEC as well as the arguments in favour of and against them Throughout the detailed commentary upon the NEC clauses comparisons to the traditional forms are also made to highlight unique features and principles of general application The conclusion reached is that the NEC does make a significant contribution to the development of standard forms of contract addresses many of their short comings and offers one of the best models for their future development direction and design The commentary draws upon the body of the project management literature and legal analysis to support its conclusions The New Engineering Contract A legal commentary will be essential reading for lawyers barristers and solicitors as well as engineers and project managers Adjudication in Construction Law Darryl Royce, 2022-01-20 This book collects all the relevant material regarding the process of adjudication in construction It provides clarity for those involved in the adjudication process or related proceedings with detailed and reliable analysis of them supported by statutory provisions and judicial observations Adjudication in Construction Law discusses the role of true value adjudications following smash and grab decisions on the basis of the absence of a pay less notice the restraint of adjudication by injunction hybrid contracts dealing with both construction operations and other operations and timing and content of payment notices and pay less notices Additionally this book includes a summary of the different procedures adopted in other jurisdictions as well as an explanation of the payment procedures under the statutory framework It also goes on to append all the relevant statutory material contractual adjudication procedures and forms A new feature of this edition is a detailed analysis and discussion of the development and of the rules relating to the acceptability of a wrong answer provided that the right question has been dealt with only one dispute being susceptible to adjudication and the necessity or otherwise of a dispute arising under the construction contract A clear and comprehensive aid this book is an essential read for lawyers or construction professionals involved in adjudication

JCT 2005: Clause by Clause Phil Griffiths, 2010-05-04 Uses a novel clause by clause approach to explain the important JCT 2005 contract Written by an experienced author explaining in simple English the meaning and relevance of each clause to avoid common misunderstandings Includes up to date legal cases that explain the development and interpretation of the contract The Joint Contracts Tribunal's suite of contracts commonly known as JCT 2005 are the most commonly used in the UK to procure major building work Understanding the contracts and which to use is vital knowledge for all students on construction related HND or degree courses but these clauses can contain convoluted language leading to confusion This easy to follow guide takes the reader through the JCT 2005 building contracts clause by clause in an easy to follow format in simple but effective language that eliminates misinterpretation Spilt into 3 sections this book provides a summary of the current JCT Contracts identifying which to use for what type of work along with an analysis of their risk liability documentation design responsibility and financial procedures ensuring that JCT 2005 Building Contract clause by clause is the vital definitive reference for the aspiring construction professional Phil Griffiths is a lecturer at Nottingham Trent University with interests in contract administration finance and project management He graduated from Nottingham Trent Polytechnic in 1971 and worked as a quantity surveyor in local authority and a medium sized construction company He also spent some time as a director of a small construction company and is a freelance estimator
