Treib,2007-01-01 At the forefront of the postwar phenomenon known as tropical modernism Vladimir Ossipoff 1907 1998 won recognition as the master of Hawaiian architecture Although he practiced at a time of rapid growth and social change in Hawaii Ossipoff criticized large scale development and advocated environmentally sensitive designs developing a distinctive form of architecture appropriate to the lush topography light and microclimates of the Hawaiian islands This book is the first to focus on Ossipoff s career presenting significant new material on the architect and situating him within the tropical modernist movement and the cultural context of the Pacific region The authors discuss how Ossipoff synthesized Eastern and Western influences including Japanese building techniques and modern architectural principles In particular they demonstrate that he drew inspiration from the interplay of indoor and outdoor space as advocated by such architects as Frank Lloyd Wright applying these to the concerns and vernacular traditions of the tropics The result was a vibrant and glamorous architectural style captured vividly in archival images and new photography As the corporate projects and private residences that Ossipoff created for such clients as IBM Punahou School Linus Pauling Jr and Clare Boothe Luce surpass their fiftieth anniversaries critical assessment of these structures offered here by distinguished scholars in the field will illuminate Ossipoff s contribution to the universal challenge of making architecture that is delightfully particular to its place and durable over time      Professionalism in the Early Years Linda Miller,Carrie Cable,2008 Professionalism in the Early Years reflects the new government agenda demanding higher levels of professionalism in the Early Years sector as set out in the Children s Workforce Strategy The Department for Children Schools and Families DCSF and Children s Workforce Development Council CWDC aim to transform and professionalise the early years workforce through the creation of new roles such as the Early Years Professional EYP for those leading and working in Children s Centres and in the private and

Garden at UCLA Cynthia Burlingham,2007 For nearly thirty years starting in the 1960s Franklin D Murphy was a dominant figure in the cultural development of Los Angeles As chancellor of UCLA and later as chief executive of the Times Mirror company Murphy channeled more than a billion dollars into the city s universities museums concert halls and libraries The Franklin D Murphy Sculpture Garden one of his landmark projects is also one of the UCLA campus s great treasures Standing as a model for sculpture gardens internationally since its dedication in 1967 the Murphy Garden features seventy two important modern and contemporary sculptures in a five acre site designed by landscape architect Ralph Cornell This fully illustrated catalog documents the entire Murphy Garden collection and provides a scholarly entry for each artist a sampling of which includes Deborah Butterfield Alexander Calder Henri Matisse Joan Miro Henry Moore Isamu Noguchi Auguste Rodin and David Smith Three essays by Victoria Steele Cynthia Burlingham and Marc Treib focus respectively on the role of Franklin Murphy in the garden s planning and execution the acquisition of the sculptures and the garden s significance within the history of sculpture garden design Sites Unseen Dianne Suzette Harris,D. Fairchild Ruggles,2007 Sites Unseen challenges conventions for viewing and interpreting the landscape using visual theory to move beyond traditional practices of describing and classifying objects to explore notions of audience and context While other fields such as art history and geography have engaged poststructuralist theory to consider vision and representation the application of such inquiry to the natural or built environment has lagged behind This book by treating landscape as a spatial psychological and sensory encounter aims to bridge this gap opening a new dialogue for discussing the landscape outside the boundaries of current art criticism and theory As the contributors reveal the landscape is a widely adaptable medium that can be employed literally or metaphorically to convey personal or institutional ideologies Walls gates churchyards and arches become framing devices for a staged aesthetic experience or to suit a sociopolitical agenda The optic stimulation of signs symbols bodies and objects combines with physical acts of climbing and walking and sensory acts of touching smelling and hearing to evoke an overall vision of landscape Sites Unseen considers a variety of different perspectives including ancient Roman visions of landscape the framing techniques of a Moghul palace and a contemporary case study of Christo s The Gates as examples of
