Vyhmeister, 2004-11-01 A Debate about Religion Jesus Christ and the Existence of God Two men from opposite viewpoints challenge each other's religious thinking to save each other from themselves and their seeming religious blindness In the process of point and counterpoint they find respect and admiration for each other while holding fast to their own beliefs A war of ideas ultimately leads to a peace of mind for both each convinced that the other is in a wrong place but for the right reasons Together they reach the startling conclusion that their opposite belief systems can peacefully coexist in a world threatened to be torn apart by religion

Empire of Knowledge Vinay Lal, 2002-10-20 During the media frenzy over the Millennium celebrations there was hardly any mention of the fact that for the majority of the world there was no Millennium at all This linear understanding of time is a specifically Western and Christian concept This is just one of many examples that Vinay Lal uses to demonstrate that nearly every idea which we take for granted in the west is part of a politics of ideas Oppression is usually associated with class struggle and other forms of economic monopoly Lal looks beyond this deconstructing the cultural assumptions that have emerged alongside capitalism to offer a devastating critique of the politics of knowledge at the heart of all powerbroking Other topics examined are the concept of development which has provided a mandate for surreptitious colonisation and the idea of the nation state something we have lived with for no more than two centuries yet is accepted without question Linking this to the emergence of international governance through the United Nations the US and imperial economic bodies such as the IMF and WTO Lal explains how such universalism came to dominate the trajectory of Western thought
