The Fight for Privacy Danielle Keats Citron,2022-10-06 Devastating and urgent this book could not be more timely Caroline Criado Perez award winning and bestselling author of Invisible Women Danielle Citron takes the conversation about technology and privacy out of the boardrooms and op eds to reach readers where we are in our bathrooms and bedrooms with our families and our lovers in all the parts of our lives we assume are untouchable and shows us that privacy as we think we know it is largely already gone The boundary that once protected our intimate lives from outside interests is an artefact of the twentieth century In the twenty first we have embraced a vast array of technology that enables constant access and surveillance of the most private aspects of our lives From non consensual pornography to online extortion to the sale of our data for profit we are vulnerable to abuse and our laws have failed miserably to keep up With vivid examples drawn from interviews with victims activists and lawmakers from around the world The Fight for Privacy reveals the threat we face and argues urgently and forcefully for a reassessment of privacy as a human right As a legal scholar and expert Danielle Citron is the perfect person to show us the way to a happier better protected future example of a new form of political expression an outburst of committed low budget community produced political video work made possible by new accessible technologies As Alexandra Juhasz looks at this phenomenon why and how video has become the medium for so much AIDS activism she also tries to make sense of the bigger picture How is this work different from mainstream television How does it alter what we think of the media s form and function The result is an eloquent and vital assessment of the role media activism plays in the development of community identity and self empowerment An AIDS videomaker herself Juhasz writes from the standpoint of an AIDS activist and blends feminist film critique with her own experience She offers a detailed description of alternative AIDS video including her own work on the Women s AIDS Video Enterprise WAVE Along with WAVE Juhasz discusses amateur video tapes of ACT UP demonstrations safer sex videos produced by Gay Men s Health Crisis public access programming and PBS documentaries as well as network television productions From its close up look at camcorder AIDS activism to its critical account of mainstream representations AIDS TV offers a better understanding of the media politics identity and community in the face of AIDS It will challenge and encourage those who hope to change the course of this crisis both in the real world and in the world of representation
