Extending Sexual Content Regulation to Cyberspace and Potential Impact for the Gay and Lesbian Community

Mark Alan Cenite, 2001 Crime, Criminal Justice and the Internet Clive Walker, Andrew Ashworth, 1998 This special edition of the Criminal Law Review journal comprises a number of articles which have crime and the Internet as their focus The articles cover the governance of the Internet in Europe with special reference to illegal and harmful content computer child pornography the liability of the distributors cyberstalking the regulation of harassment on the Internet criminal law and the Internet the investigator's perspective digital footprints assessing computer evidence and policing and the regulation of the Internet Proceedings, 1999 Censorship Kate Burns, 2007 Editor Kate Burns has compiled compelling essays and counter essays that survey the history of censorship Readers will look at how the arguments have both changed and remained constant over time and will be fascinated by the way moral questions remain fundamentally consistent This volume contains a wide range of primary documents and essays by historians and modern scholars which add background and insight The Information Revolution Paul A. Winters, 1998 Experts believe that the world is moving from the industrial age into the information age The effects of this transformation on society individuals schools and the economy are the topics of contentious debate 1999 International Symposium on Technology and Society IEEE Society on Social Implications of Technology, 1999 The theme of the symposium is Women and Technology Historical Societal and Professional Perspectives The roles of women in technology are more diverse controversial and important today than ever before Since the 1950s women have tried to technologically empower themselves particularly by entering the engineering profession They have done so in great numbers although today it is glaringly obvious that women are still underrepresented in engineering Women in the field still face gender based obstacles expectations and biases despite decades of efforts to eradicate these problems These issues are addressed Computer Sciences: Electronic universe Roger R. Flynn, 2002 Contains nearly three hundred articles that provide information about various aspects of the computer sciences discussing the history of computing software and hardware the social applications of computers and the impact of computers on society Includes illustrations time lines glossaries and indexes Current Law Index, 2000 Interpersonal Culture on the Internet Sarah N. Gatson, Amanda Zweerink, 2004 Community is a highly contested concept and in the milieu of mass media it is even more highly fraught The book is a community formation narrative adding to our common database of emergent community practice on the Internet The book bolsters our understandings of the substantive processes involved particularly those of boundary formation spatial dimensions of communities and how communities are always both embedded and emerging entities Finally it deals with the question of how seamless and or disruptive the new technology of the Internet is vis a vis our traditional practices of community formation and maintenance We are interested in a problem with communities based in media fandoms Eventually the artist will quit making music the movie will cease to have sequels or the television show will get cancelled What happens to these communities when their basis of interest goes away Is the bond of community enough to keep them together Why do people fracture into other groups Why do some hold on to the one for all all for one mentality chosen offline or do they stick by the friends they made in the community who would not ordinarily be their type In the last couple of years of working with this community the ways in which one gauges when a community ends and when it merely morphs into some other kind of interpersonal phenomenon have been at the forefront of our research The book is ethnographic in method and deals with community concepts such as networks geography boundaries and politics
