Sex And Repression In Savage Society Vol 4 Bronislaw Malinowski:

The Cambridge World History of Sexualities: Volume 1, General Overviews Merry E. Wiesner-Hanks, Mathew Kuefler, 2024-04-30 Volume I offers historiographical surveys and general overviews of central topics in the history of world sexualities Split across twenty two chapters this volume places the history of sexuality in dialogue with anthropology women s history LGBTQ history queer theory and public history as well as examining the impact Freud and Foucault have had on the history of sexuality The volume continues by providing overviews on the sexual body family and marriage the intersections of sexuality with race and class male and female homoerotic relations trans and gender variant sexuality the sale of sex sexual violence sexual science sexuality and emotion erotic art and literature and the material culture of sexuality Professing Sociology Irving Horowitz, 2017-07-05 Professing Sociology was originally published at a time when sociology commanded widespread interest and public funding Written by one of the leaders of the new sociology of the late sixties this volume captures the nature and intensity of the field s intellectual foundations and scope It reveals the field s post World War II development as a scientific discipline and as a profession and includes the author s most significant writings on critical trends shaping the field Irving Louis Horowitz divides the life cycle of sociology into three main sections The first deals with the inner life of sociology covering basic theoretical issues uniting and dividing the profession In a second section Horowitz shows the institutions and sources from which the struggle of ideas is nourished A third section shows how political life shapes the inner life of American sociology Horowitz gives a great deal of attention to international social science to the relationship of social science to public policy and to federal projects and grant agencies and their effects on research Irving Louis Horowitz was undoubtedly influential in shaping his field and Professing Sociology offers valuable insights into how ideas become part of the fabric of professional life As the new introduction by Howard G Schneiderman shows Professing Sociology provides a clear picture of sociology at the height of its importance The Vienna Circle and Religion Esther Ramharter, 2022-03-08 This book is the first systematic and historical account of the Vienna Circle that deals with the relation of logical empiricists with religion as well as theology Given the standard image of the Vienna Circle as a strong anti metaphysical group and non religious philosophical and intellectual movement this book draws a surprising conclusion namely that several members of the famous Moritz Schlick Circle e g the left wing with Rudolf Carnap Otto Neurath Philipp Frank Edgar Zilsel but also Schlick himself dealt with the dualisms of faith belief and knowledge religion and science despite or because of their non cognitivist commitment to the values of Enlightenment One remarkable exception was the philosopher and Rabbi Joseph Sch cchter who wrote explicitly on religion and philosophy after the linguistic turn The book also covers another puzzling figure the famous logician Kurt G del who wrote on theology and the ontological proof of God in his so far unpublished notebooks The book opens up new perspectives on the Vienna Circle with its internal philosophical and political pluralism and is of value to philosophers historians and anybody who is interested in the relation between science and religion Religions of Melanesia Garry Trompf, 2006-09-30 Melanesia boasts over one quarter of the world's distinct religions and presents the most complex religious panorama on earth. The region is famous for its unusual new religious movements that have adapted traditional beliefs to modernity in surprising ways. As the first bibliographical survey to comprehensively cover the entire region, Religions of Melanesia is an invaluable research aid for anyone interested in this growing field. Trompf's work is a complete listing of scholarly publications and provides readable and concise descriptions that will clearly guide the researcher toward the most relevant sources. This survey covers 2188 entries organized topically and regionally. Trompf covers such subjects as traditional and modern belief systems and the emergent indigenous Christianity that has taken root. Regional coverage includes Irian Jaya, Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, New Caledonia, and Fiji.

Malinowski Michael W. Young, 2004-01-01 Bronislaw Malinowski 1884-1942 was one of the most colorful and charismatic social scientists of the twentieth century. His contributions as a founding father of social anthropology and his complex personality earned him international notoriety and near mythical status. This landmark book presents a vivid portrait of Malinowski's early life from his birth in Cracow to his departure in 1920 from the Trobriand Islands of the South Pacific. At the age of 36 he had already created the innovative fieldwork methods and techniques that would secure his intellectual legacy. Drawing on an exceptionally rich array of primary documents including Malinowski's letters and unpublished diaries and manuscripts, Michael Young provides significant new information about the anthropologist's personality, private life, and career. The author describes Malinowski's restless life of travel, connections with intellectuals and artists, Nietzschean belief in his own destiny, and legendary fieldwork. The singular man who emerges from these pages fascinates on every level as a volatile friend and lover, a provocative colleague, a passionate diarist, and a brilliant thinker who pioneered radical change in the field of anthropology.

Imdeduya Gunter Senft, 2017-07-12 This volume presents five variants of the Imdeduya myth: two versions of the actual myth, a short story, a song, and John Kasaipwalova's English poem Sail the Midnight Sun. This poem draws heavily on the Trobriand myth, which introduces the protagonists Imdeduya and Yolina and reports on Yolina's intention to marry the girl so famous for her beauty. On his long journey to Imdeduya's village and on their tragic love story, the texts are compared with each other, with a final focus on the clash between orality and scriptuality. Contrary to Kasaipwalova's fixed poetic text, the oral Imdeduya versions reveal the variability characteristic for oral tradition. This variability opens up questions about traditional stability and destabilization of oral literature, especially questions about the changing role of myth and magic in the Trobriand Islanders' society, which gets more and more integrated into the by now literal nation of Papua New Guinea.

Exploring the Interplay of Edward Sapir's Anthropology and Lacanian Psychoanalysis Lenart Kodre, 2024-12-15 Was Edward Sapir's perspective on culture and personality groundbreaking, or should we regard it as just one more theory that reached a scientific dead end? Exploring the Interplay of Edward Sapir's Anthropology and Lacanian

Psychoanalysis Culture and Subjectivity introduces a fresh perspective to traditional anthropological discourse by exploring Edward Sapir's insights into culture and personality relationship alongside Jacques Lacan's theories on the individual and collective. This book reassesses the dynamics between subjective and social realms paving the way for potentially a new anthropological model of subjectivity and the definition of culture. Exploring the historical context of anthropology psychoanalysis relationships this book synthesizes diverse conceptions of culture and personality through an interdisciplinary lens. By leveraging Lacan's theoretical framework to interpret Sapir's bold ideas on the culture personality dyad it assesses integrating Lacanian subjectivity into the culture individual relationship bridging commonalities between the two fields and introducing insights into their interdisciplinary interplay. This book summarizes key findings from Lacanian subjectivity theory and examines a new perspective on the process of cultural transmission and socialization by highlighting Sapir's pioneering view on the relationship between the individual and society. It also addresses ontological epistemological and methodological questions in anthropology through Lacanian dynamics of desire.
