Feminism, Redemption, and the Christian Tradition Mary C. Grey,1990 New Books on Women and Feminism,1989 A Dangerous Delight Monica Furlong,1991 Of Spirituality Clare B. Fischer,1995 This valuable reference represents an unprecedented effort to identify and organize titles relating to feminism and spirituality in a coherent and accessible manner Books are classified by subject in thirteen chapters This is her bibliography of 1 849 books on feminist spirituality THEOLOGY DIGEST The journals listing is global in representation REFERENCE REVIEWS The Case for Women's Ministry Ruth B. Edwards,1989 As the debate about women s ministry intensifies so does the need for a calm and balanced assessment of all the arguments both biblical and theological the debate has so far produced That need has now been fully met by Ruth Edwards in this clear comprehensive and highly readable study Part one provides a fresh analysis of the New Testament data viewed in the light of our latest knowledge of both Jewish and Graeco Roman attitudes of the time Having considered the biblical foundations the book continues in Part Two with a perceptive appraisal of the way Christian attitudes to women have developed from the early Fathers through to the key movements and insights of this century all of which are now combining to question traditional ideas about priesthood and the crucial relationship between ministry and authority Sacred Space Steve Brie,Jenny Daggers,David Torevell,2009 The identification and positioning of sacred space within contemporary contexts has to date received scant attention In reflecting upon a broad spectrum of conceptions of what constitutes sacred space this collection of interdisciplinary essays presents a new perspective on an area that is developing into an important theological and philosophical concept Studies,1988 An Irish quarterly review Courting Betrayal Helen C. Orchard,1998 Iroko,2006 Whitaker's Book List,1987 Mrs Oliphant, "a Fiction to Herself" Elisabeth Jay,1995 As an expatriate Scots woman Mrs Margaret Oliphant 1828 97 started her prolific and accomplished writing career at three removes from the centre of Victorian literary life Widowed early and left with not only her own children but two brothers a nephew and two nieces to support she became keenly aware of the discrepancy between society s assumptions about woman s role and her own position as a female breadwinner in the male dominated world of nineteenth century publishing Out of the contrast between her wryly ironic view of life and the conventions of Victorian fiction came the disconcerting questioning of accepted ideologies of the family religious orthodoxy and a woman s place in society that characterizes her writing Mrs Oliphant A Fiction to Herself paints an often surprising picture of the professional Victorian woman writer By choosing to interweave the life and the work of Mrs Oliphant Elisabeth Jay's lucid and comprehensive study raises for consideration the way in which a particular woman writer perceived her own life and the wider question of whether women writers have been well served by the mythological structures of male biography Elisabeth Jay has drawn upon Oliphant's wide ranging writing in numerous modes to give a comprehensive and often surprising portrait of the professional Victorian woman writer This study of Oliphant's career as a professional Victorian writer of her critical and intellectual interests and the extraordinary way in which she managed fiction and journalism over her career will cast a new light on the period Elaine Showalter Professor of English Princeton University
