Damien Broderick

Seas Furthest End:

Climbing Mount Implausible Damien Broderick, 2010-01-01 Climbing Mount Implausible showcases a writer's growth though nearly fifty years of questing into the future. It includes his first published stories plus detailed notes on his own evolution as a writer: his recent Philip K. Dick tribute Dead Air and an outrageously funny collaboration with Paul Di Filippo Cockroach Love. Canary Fever John Clute, 2016-11-24 Canary Fever is a collection of reviews about the most significant literatures of the twenty-first century: science fiction, fantasy, and horror. The literatures Clute argues should be recognized as the central modes of fantastika in our times. The title refers to the canary in the coal mine who whiffs gas and dies to save miners; reviewers of fantastika can find themselves in a similar position though words can only hurt us. Talk of Treasure Jane Carswell, 2019-02-01 Jane Carswell began her working life at Pegasus Press shortly after its audacious publication of Janet Frame's novel Owls Do Cry and years later she went on to write an award-winning memoir called Under the Huang Jiao Tree. Two journeys in China. The road between one book and the other was paved with both delight and self-doubt; the experience provoking Jane to write again this time about the transformation between the private interior worlds of reading and meditation and the noisy exterior world of publication between the books we read and treasure and the ones we write. With a wry and engaging tone she invites us into her world and its jostling demands of music, teaching, writing, friends, and family; a succession of Chinese guests and travels to a world of meditation and monasteries. In the spirit of the works of Anne Lamott and Kate Llewellyn, the daily activities of Jane's life are bound to small breakthroughs and quiet illuminations. The author becomes a perfect companion to the reader as her life, writing, and meditation coalesce in profound ways. But as the perfect ending to her own writing journey and understanding threatens to elude her, Jane journeys to where Janet Frame grew up to find the courage and wisdom to complete her own story. Lyrical and literary, Talk of Treasure is a compelling memoir about how to be a writer and more simply just how to be. Carswell's understated writing has a rare clarity and honesty. The Dominion Post. Her powers of description are so acute and tender. An enjoyable and fascinating account of the ways in which our passions enable us to become fully human. Ruth Fowler, Community Meditation teacher. Jane Carswell treads not only carefully but thoughtfully and originally. The Age. Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post-colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories. In more than 1,600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars, it explores the effect of the colonial and post-colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide. Sailing Direction for the Coasts of the Baltic, Or East Sea, Comprehending the Entire Navigation from the Sound to the Gulf of Finland ...
