Levinson, 1979 This book explores and explains the specific periods of personal development through which all humans must pass The Psychological Development of Girls and Women Sheila Greene, 2003 Greene's approach places primary importance on temporality itself and on the competing discourses on time age and development which play an active role in the construction of the lives of girls and women Essential but often neglected insights from the more compelling developmental and feminist theories are woven together within a theoretical framework that emphasizes temporality emergence and human agency The result is a liberating theory of women's psychological development as constantly emerging and changing in time rather than as static and fixed by their nature socio cultural context and personal history Outline lessons on men of the Bible, 2nd series, New Testament, and the Church seasons Robert Root Resker, 1895 The Inner World of Abraham Lincoln Michael Burlingame, 1997 Based primarily on long neglected manuscript and newspaper sources and especially on reminiscences of people who knew him this psychobiography casts new light on Lincoln Burlingame uses a blend of Freudian and Jungian theory to interpret the psyche of the 16th president Routledge's Sunday Album for Children.
