Module 1: Properties and Structure of Matter

Properties of Matter

Particle Theory of Matter

All matter is made of tiny particles with empty spaces between them. Different substances are made of different types of particles. As the temperature increase particles move faster. Particles attract each other.

Pure Substances

Element: Consists of one type of atom that cannot be broken down to anything simpler.

Can exist as atoms or molecules eg. oxygen

Compound: Consists of two or more types of atoms that are chemically bonded together in a fixed ratio. Can be chemically broken down into simpler compounds or individual elements. Eg.  $H_2O$  (water)

Impure Substances (mixtures)

Consist of two or more different elements or compounds physically mixed. Can be physically separated into its components.

Homogeneous Mixture: Are evenly mixed throughout the mixture. This means the same properties and composition of the mixture remains the same throughout it. Eg. NaCl (table salt)

Heterogeneous Mixture: Are NOT evenly mixed, the properties and composition are differing throughout. Eg. A mixture of water & oil.

Calculating Percentage Composition

Gravimetric analysis is used to calculate the percentage composition (what % of each element is present) of a mixture by measuring a change in mass.

$$\% \text{ weight} = \frac{\text{Mass of component in sample (g)}}{\text{Total mass of sample (g)}} \times 100$$

Separation Methods

Separation Method	Description
Sieving	Using solids of different particle sizes. Sieve retains larger particles
Sedimentation & Decantation	Based on density of particles. Large particles separate and 'settle' under the effect of gravity.
Filtration	Based on particle size, mixture is poured through filter paper leaving insoluble residue as the filtrate passes through.
Evaporation (boiling)	Liquids containing different boiling points. Liquid evaporates leaving, dissolved solution.

Pathways To Chemistry Prelim Hsc:

Pathways to Chemistry Geoffrey Thickett, 1996      Australian National Bibliography , 1996-05      The Zebrafish: Disease Models and Chemical Screens , 2017-01-25      The Zebrafish Disease Models and Chemical Screens      Indian Journal of Chemistry , 1994      Preparation, Bioactivity Evaluation, and Quality Control of Natural Products and Their Derivatives Xi Zheng, Xuetao Xu, Xiping Cui, 2025-02-27

Natural products with biological activity are an important source of innovative drugs. Statistics show that over half of small molecule drugs come from natural products and their analogues. At the same time, the development of efficient synthesis methods and the evaluation of the functional activity of related active molecules are necessary steps to obtain corresponding innovative drugs. These have always been at the forefront of research for organic chemists and pharmaceutical chemists. In addition, the quality evaluation of natural products and their derivatives, including bioactive molecule, exogenous harmful substances and endogenous toxic components, will be guaranteed to ensure the safe and effective clinical treatment.

The Effect of Trace Elements in Experimental Colon Cancer Rosa Bergoc, Juan C. Perazzo, Ernesto J.V. Crescenti, 2025-10-21

Based on the results presented in this book and in accordance with previously published results, the authors emphasize the role of the extracellular matrix as the medium through which the processes of growth, invasion, differentiation and cell death are regulated. Moreover, in the last chapter dedicated to the conclusions, the effect of Trace Elements, zinc, selenium and manganese (OLEs) on these interrelationships is also discussed. This book offers the reader promising basic and preclinical findings that give hope for the potential therapeutic use of OLEs in CRC colorectal cancer patients. Additionally, the book opens several other avenues of research. Given that OLEs positively regulate immunity and negatively regulate tumor development and growth, one potential research direction would be to determine whether the antitumor action of OLEs is mediated by an increase in antitumor immunity. In addition to their known nutritional properties, the trace elements Zn, Se and Mn can act on the inhibition of initiation and progression of colorectal cancer through the extracellular matrix.

53rd National Meeting of the Italian Society of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (SIB) and National Meeting of Chemistry of Biological Systems - Italian Chemical Society (SCI - Section CSB) Firenze University Press, Italian Chemical Society, Società italiana di biochimica, The 53rd National Congress of the Italian Society of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology SIB, which will be held in Riccione from 23 to 26 September, is characterised by the elevated scientific level and interdisciplinary interest of the numerous sessions in which it is organised. The Scientific Programme comprises three joint Symposia of the SIB and the Chemistry of Biological Systems section of the Italian Chemistry Society SCI: on Molecular Systems Biology, Chemistry of Nucleic Acids, Protein and Drug Structure and Environmental Biotechnology. These Symposia address groundbreaking arguments, making the joint interest of the two societies particularly fascinating. The joint organisation of these events, in fact, signals the shared intention to proceed along the path of scientific exchange. The topics of the other sessions have been chosen by the Scientific Committee on the basis of their scientific relevance and topicality with particular attention paid to the selection of the speakers The SIB sessions will range from Signal Transduction and Biomolecular Targets Protein Misfolding and its Relationship with Disease Emerging Techniques in Biochemistry Gene Silencing Redox Signalling and Oxidative Stress Lipids in Cell Communication and Signal Transduction Mitochondrial Function and Dysfunction Index Medicus ,2002 Vols for 1963 include as pt 2 of the Jan issue Medical subject headings Kwic Index to Neurochemistry Mimosa Frenk Foundation for Applied Neurochemistry,1961
