Sculpsit Kerstin Mey, 2001 Cornelia Parker Michael Sandle Mark Wallinger Georg Baselitz Tracey Emin Kiki Smith Ping Qiu Azade Koker Kuc Wolff Stelarc Visualising a Sacred City Ben Quash, Aaron Rosen, Chloe Reddaway, 2016-11-25 William Blake famously imagined Jerusalem builded here in London But Blake was not the first or the last to visualise a shimmering new metropolis on the banks of the River Thames For example the Romans erected a temple to Mithras in their ancient city of Londinium medieval Londoners created Temple Church in memory of the Holy Sepulchre in which Jesus was buried and Christopher Wren reshaped the skyline of the entire city with his visionary dome and spires after the Great Fire of London in 1666 In the modern period the fabric of London has been rewoven in the image of its many immigrants from the Caribbean South Asia Eastern Europe and elsewhere While previous books have examined literary depictions of the city this is the first examination of the religious imaginary of the metropolis through the prism of the visual arts Adopting a broad multicultural and multi faith perspective and making space for practitioners as well as scholars its topics range from ancient archaeological remains and Victorian murals and cemeteries to contemporary documentaries and political cartoons Kiki Smith Wendy Weitman, Kiki Smith, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2003 This work is published to accompany an exhibition at MoMA QNS devoted to an under acknowledged but crucial area of Kiki Smith's art December 5th 2003 March 8th 2004 Drawing Difference Marsha Meskimmon, Phil Sawdon, 2016-03-24 Drawing has been growing in recognition and stature within contemporary fine art since the mid 1970s Simultaneously feminist activism has been widespread leading to the increased prominence of women artists scholars critics and curators and the wide acknowledgement of the crucial role played by gender and sexual difference in constituting the subject Drawing Difference argues that these developments did not occur in parallel simply by coincidence Rather the intimate interplay between drawing and feminism is best characterised as allotropic a term originating in chemistry that describes a single pure element which nevertheless assumes varied physical structures denoting the fundamental affinities which underlie apparently differing material forms The book takes as its starting point three works from the 1970s by Annette Messager Dorothea Rockburne and Carolee Schneeman that are used to exemplify critical developments in feminist art history and key moments for drawing as a means of expression Throughout the chapters these works are further explored in relation to the contemporary drawing practices of Marco Maggi Sian Bowen Susan Hauptmann Cornelia Parker Christoph Fink and Toba Khedouri Their works are shown to be re iterative sites where mark making differs with each appearance yet retains certain essential features Dividing its analysis into the themes Approaching Tropes and Coinciding the book analyses how both drawing and feminist discourse emphasise dialogue matter and openness It demonstrates how sexual difference subjectivity and drawing are connected at an elemental level and thus how drawing has played a vital role in the articulation of the material and conceptual dynamics of feminism Abject visions Rina Arya, Nicholas Chare, 2016-05-03 An impressive list of authors examine how abjection can be discussed in relation to a host of different subjects including marginality and gender Retroactivity and Contemporary Art Craig Staff, 2018-04-19 Contemporary art is often preoccupied with time or acts in which the past is recovered Through specific case studies of artists who strategically work with historical moments this book examines how art from the last two decades has sought to mobilize these particular histories and to what effect against the backdrop of Modernism Drawing on the art theory of Rosalind Krauss and the philosophies of Paul Ricoeur Gerhard Richter and Pierre Nora Retroactivity and Contemporary Art interprets those works that foreground some aspect of retroactivity whether re enacting commemorating or re imagining as key artistic strategies This book is striking philosophical reflection on time within art and art within time and an indispensable read for those attempting to understand the artistic significance of history materiality and memory
