Sea Thing And Other Stories:

Catastrophe and Other Stories Dino Buzzati, 2018-08-28 These stories show how strange and unexpected events can creep into everyday life and draw ordinary people towards mystery, disquiet and ultimately catastrophe. This volume brings together twenty of the best stories written by Dino Buzzati, author of the celebrated novel The Tartar Steppe and one of the most original voices in twentieth-century literature. Stories which show the Italian master's taste for the bizarre and the humorous and for exploring the darker recesses of the human psyche. From The Collapse of the Baliverna where a man is racked with guilt at the thought that he might have been responsible for the loss of many lives to The Epidemic which describes the spread of a state influenza contracted only by people who don't step into line with the government and Terror at the Scala where the higher echelons of Milan society are gripped with the fear of an impending revolution, these stories show how strange and unexpected events can creep into everyday life and draw ordinary people towards mystery, disquiet and ultimately catastrophe.

Bad Water and Other Stories of the Alaskan Panhandle Tom Hunt, 2013-06-29 Bad Water and Other Stories of the Alaskan Panhandle is a book of short stories set in southeast Alaska on an archipelago about the size of Florida. There are not many people and most of them live in a few small scattered towns. Some live in the more remote areas of the thousands of miles of coastline and hundreds of backwater bays and coves making a living at whatever is available. Alaska is a place where geography and weather dictate human behavior and that could mean eating the same dried beans, rice, deer meat and fish for a good part of the year. With no freeways and little law enforcement, a 911 call means contacting the Coast Guard; people must learn to be self-sufficient, especially in times of emergencies. Sometimes people make their own solutions to solve problems. If a solution doesn't work and you're still alive, it's time to try another. The folks that live in this remote part of Alaska do whatever it takes to make it work. There's a freedom that can't be had in civilization, but the price is high. These are their stories.

Running and Other Stories, 2023-01-10 Turning her back on what is considered conventional, Makhosazana Xaba engages with her subject matter on a revolutionary level in Running and Other Stories. She takes tradition, be that literary tradition, cultural tradition, gender tradition, and reimagines it in a way that is liberating and innovative. Bracketed by Xaba's revisitings of Can Themba's influential short story The Suit, the ten stories in this collection, while strongly independent, are in conversation with one another, resulting in a collection that can be devoured all at once or savoured slowly, story by story. By re-envisioning the ordinary and accepted, Xaba is creating a space in which women's voices are given a rebirth
