Danto, Steven Henry Madoff, 1993 Printmaking in America Trudy V. Hansen, Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum, 1995-09 The years from 1960 to 1990 witnessed an extraordinary outburst of creative activity among American printmakers A number of important new workshops were founded from such influential studios as Universal Limited Art Editions as Long Island and the Tamarind Lithography Workshop in Los Angeles to small presses throughout the country In contrast to traditional European ateliers where professional printers reproduced artists' designs for commercial edition printing the new American workshops stressed collaboration and emphasized radical experimentation with medium and process The work produced in these studios often owed as much to the imaginative gifts of the printer as the conception of the artist High Art David Carrier, 2010-11-01 The great poet Charles Baudelaire 1821-1867 was also an extremely influential art critic High Art relates the philosophical issues posed by Baudelaire's art writing to the theory and practice of modernist and postmodernist painting Baudelaire wrote in an age of transition David Carrier argues an era divided by the Revolution of 1848 the historical break that played for him a role now taken within modernism by the political revolts of 1968 Moving from the grand tradition of Delacroix to the images of modern life made by Constantin Guys this movement from high to low from the unified world of correspondences to the fragmented images of contemporary city life motivates Baudelaire's equivalent to the post 1968 turn away from formalist art criticism Viewed from the perspective of the 1990s Carrier argues the issues raised by Baudelaire's criticism and creative writing provide a way of understanding the situation of art writing in our own time Art Journal, 1960 Sean Scully.
