Searching For Love:

Love's Looking Glass Henry Charles Beeching, John William Mackail, Bowyer Nichols, 1891 Francis Bacon's Contribution to Shakespeare Barry R. Clarke, 2019-01-24 Francis Bacon's Contribution to Shakespeare advocates a paradigm shift away from a single author theory of the Shakespeare work towards a many hands theory Here the middle ground is adopted between competing so called Stratfordian and alternative single author conspiracy theories In the process arguments are advanced as to why Shakespeare's First Folio 1623 presents as an unreliable document for attribution and why contemporary opinion characterised Shakespeare his baptised name as an opportunist businessman who acquired the work of others Current methods of authorship attribution are critiqued and an entirely new Rare Collocation Profiling RCP method is introduced which unlike current stylometric methods is capable of detecting multiple contributors to a text Using the Early English Books Online database rare phrases and collocations in a target text are identified together with the authors who used them This allows a DNA type profile to be constructed for the possible contributors to a text that also takes into account direction of influence The method brings powerful new evidence to bear on crucial questions such as the author of the Groats worth of Witte 1592 letter the identifiable hands in 3 Henry VI the extent of Francis Bacon's contribution to Twelfth Night and The Tempest and the scheduling of Love's Labour's Lost at the 1594/5 Gray's Inn Christmas revels for which Bacon wrote entertainments The treatise also provides detailed analyses of the nature of the complaint against Shakespeare in the Groats worth letter the identity of the players who performed The Comedy of Errors at Gray's Inn in 1594 and the reasons why Shakespeare could not have had access to Virginia colony information that appears in The Tempest With a Foreword by Sir Mark Rylance this meticulously researched and penetrating study is a thought provoking read for the inquisitive student in Shakespeare Studies *Catalog of Copyright Entries. first week of Advent In the course of the liturgical year the gospel readings present us with a significant selection of the words and deeds of Jesus from all four gospels In and through these gospel readings we encounter the living word of the risen Lord to his church There is rich fare here to nourish our faith life and to help us to grow in our knowledge and love of the Lord These short reflections attempt to listen to the Scripture passages on their own terms while showing how they can continue to speak to our church and our world today Many people feel drawn to basing their prayer on the Scriptures in particular the gospels It is hoped that these reflections will serve as a help to prayer for people of faith They may also be of service to priests who seek to offer a short reflection on the gospel reading of the day to their parishioners In parishes where from time to time there is a Liturgy of the Word in place of Mass the Minister of the Word might read the corresponding reflection after the gospel reading On most week days the same readings are proclaimed in the church throughout the world in the setting of the Eucharist To read and reflect upon the readings for the weekdays of the liturgical year is to go on a spiritual journey with the universal church
