Yoder,1999-04 Storied Dishes Linda Murray Berzok,2010-11-18 We are what we eat not just physiologically but culturally This collection of cross cultural generational essays and accompanying recipes shows the profound importance of food dishes within American women s lives For people of every ethnicity food provides much more than mere fuel for the body it contains an invisible component that ties families and generations together with the continuity of shared experience And for the women who are entrusted with the responsibility of keeping that priceless cultural thread intact family recipes embody tradition bridge generation gaps and erase age differences This book is organized around 50 short essays and recipes presented by women from multicultural backgrounds and dissimilar walks of life The chapters depict the paths of these individuals in their lives and the details of how they acquired their precious family recipes The stories document how women universally use inherited family recipes to remember and memorialize key women in their lives and to aid and measure their own growth and development Included are reminiscences of an Egyptian aunt a poor mother from Australia a Katrina flooded New Orleans family Turkish relations Chinese mothers and Indian grandmothers Cooking Lessons Sherrie A. Inness,2001-08-07 Meatloaf fried chicken Jell O cake because foods are so very common we rarely think about them much in depth The authors of Cooking Lessons however believe that food is deserving of our critical scrutiny and that such analysis yields many important lessons about American society and its values This book explores the relationship between food and gender Contributors draw from diverse sources both contemporary and historical and look at women from various cultural backgrounds including Hispanic traditional southern White and African American Each chapter focuses on a certain food teasing out its cultural meanings and showing its effect on women s identity and lives For example food has often offered women a traditional way to gain power and influence in their households and larger communities For women without access to other forms of creative expression preparing a superior cake or batch of fried chicken was a traditional way to display their talent in an acceptable venue On the other hand foods and the stereotypes attached to them have also been used to keep women and men too from different races ethnicities and social classes in their place Tastes from a Tuscan Kitchen Madeline Armillotta,Diane Nocentini,2007 Over the years the authors have collected many wonderful recipes from relatives and friends living in Tuscany and other regions of Italy When deciding to write this book they considered which of these recipes we used the most and why Both authors enjoy the distinct flavours in Italian cooking which are enhanced by the use of fresh herbs and extra virgin olive oil and also eating a healthy well balanced diet of fresh fruits vegetables fish meat beans and dairy products They also appreciate that in today s world everyone has a busy schedule Therefore it became a priority that the recipes offered were not only delicious but also quick and easy to prepare The final selection includes a wide variety of mouth watering favourites presented with concise easy to follow instructions and many tasty variations These variations allow for flexibility in the kitchen and are an enticing invitation to cook creatively The result is a cookbook that will simplify your life and gratify the tastebuds of your family and friends This book will become your inspiration for quick
