Pre Raphaelite Papers:

Pre-Raphaelite Papers Leslie Parris, Tate Gallery, 1984 The Journal of Pre-Raphaelite Studies, 1997 Writing the Pre-Raphaelites Tim Barringer, 2017-07-05 This vibrant collection of essays claims that a complex network of texts by critics biographers and diarists established the credibility and influence of the Pre Raphaelite movement Throughout the twentieth century Modernist taste failed to acknowledge the achievement of oppositional groupings such as the Pre Raphaelites The essays collected here however reveal that the British group anticipated later avant gardes by using the written word to configure for itself a radical artistic identity Public and critics alike were scandalized by the radicalism of Pre Raphaelite painting its unflinching portrayal of historical figures and of contemporary life and its irreverent attitude to artistic convention Pre Raphaelitism's innovations were not confined to style new forms of artistic identity and behaviour were explored As the contributors interrogate the texts through which Pre Raphaelitism was constructed they demonstrate that the movement's wide influence as a cultural phenomenon derived from the interplay between exhibited works and critical discourse Applying a range of sophisticated methodologies from the fields of literary studies art history and cultural studies these interdisciplinary essays uncover the neglected role of texts in the success of the Pre Raphaelite rebellion and argue in favor of a new centrality for this movement in the history of nineteenth century European culture The Boyce Papers Sue Bradbury, Susan Miller Bradbury, 2019 The first full edition of the correspondence between three artists Joanna Boyce her brother George P Boyce and Henry Wells who she eventually married It dates from the period 1845 to 1861 and covers artistic life in both Paris and London including the Pre Raphaelites This correspondence between three artists Joanna Boyce her brother George P Boyce and Henry Wells whom she eventually married dates from the period 1845 to 1861 They were all friends of Rossetti and the Pre Raphaelite circle but in addition Henry and Joanna both studied in Paris and Joanna wrote extensively about her time there training with Thomas Couture She wrote for The Saturday Review as well as painting a small number of very interesting and much admired pictures Her brother George established himself as a successful watercolourist and member of the Old Watercolour Society having been encouraged both by David Cox on his Welsh sketching expeditions and by Ruskin whose letters advising him what to paint in Venice are included here Henry Wells was primarily a portrait painter At first he specialised in miniatures and was commissioned to paint Mary princess of Cambridge by Queen Victoria There are vivid accounts of visits to country houses to carry out commissions from their owners The three wrote constantly about techniques of painting and about the new colours that became available at this period and about their visits to exhibitions both in Paris and London They all contributed to the Royal Academy and other exhibitions In addition there is the extraordinary story of Joanna's and Henry's courtship and marriage at first encouraged and then viciously opposed by Joanna's recently widowed mother The correspondence survives only in an unpublished transcript made in the 1940s as the originals were all destroyed in a bombing raid on Bath during the second world war Excerpts from George P
