Preaching is Believing Ronald J. Allen, 2002-01-01 In Preaching Is Believing Allen calls for preachers to help congregations cultivate a systematic approach to Christian faith and life by bringing systematic theology directly into the pulpit

The New Interpreter's® Handbook of Preaching, 2010-11-01 The New Interpreter's Handbook of Preaching is a major reference tool for preaching with articles on every facet of Christian sermon preparation and delivery This resource is both scholarly and practical It focuses on the most distinctive feature and greatest strength of homiletics as a discipline It is rooted in interdisciplinary scholarship and it develops theory geared to practice Its theory arises out of the study of both excellent preaching past and present and actual sermon preparation and composition When theory and practice critique each other it is possible to produce guidelines that assist greater excellence and economy in preaching the gospel Excellence in standards is an area in which homiletics needs to grow and this project will be both a means to encourage and develop it A guiding question throughout will be Will it preach The answers will be offered in the sense that here is something that works well rather than here is something to try Preachers will turn to this resource with the expectation that they will find scholarly treatment of topics brief bibliographies of relevant key books and articles along with practical methodological suggestions for preachers to employ The contributors are homileticians preachers and writers in various disciplines who are committed to the pulpit through practice

What's the Shape of Narrative Preaching? Mike Graves, 2012 They are there after an urgent need a moment of desperation Like Ellen Cardwell's telling of a highway angel who helped Ellen and her husband resume their trip after car trouble on California's desolate Highway 1 Or Delores Topliff's memory from her childhood when on the brink of starvation an angel on a bicycle dropped off bags of groceries These stories will challenge and reward your faith in God a God Who tells us to entertain strangers and possibly Heavenly Company Contained within this book is an exclusive collection of real life encounters with God's angels and mysterious helpful strangers Best selling author Cecil Murphey coauthor of 90 Minutes in Heaven and more than one hundred other books and his cowriter Twila Belk masterfully bring together brand new reports from all over the world that share one thing in common the way in which God uses messengers to touch our lives Filled with hundreds of pages of stories that will excite your spirit and touch your heart you'll travel from Africa to Texas to Russia and back again Curl up with this powerful book and read amazing true accounts of individuals who have encountered angels both seen and unseen

Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology's critical reflection on marginalized people's wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God s future in our lives and confirming God s active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships marginality ethnic discrimination and relative powerlessness in life While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory namely a psalmic theological homiletic This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement This re envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel s psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope filled life through communal anticipation of God s coming future on the margins Specifically this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement i e lament retelling a story confessional doxology and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen,2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Sermons on

United Methodist Beliefs Kenneth L. Carder,1991 Sermons of Theism, Atheism, and the Popular Theology Theodore Parker,1870 A Faith Worth Believing, Living, and Commending Dennis Ngien,2008-03-01 The materials presented here are reflections on a variety of topics a belief in God s suffering and the pastoral implications of this Luther s theology of preaching practical approaches to evangelistic preaching pastoral advice on death and dying apologetic preaching in a post Christian culture on the model of Paul effective living in the power of the Holy Spirit striking a balance between enthusiastic service and fervent love the image of God s love in the Old Testament and personal exhortations Although this book was written on the balcony of my own study where reflection and meditation are carried out it is cognizant of ministry contexts where people s needs and struggles are most evident With anecdotes and analyses the readers will be enabled to discern the signs of divine transcendence in their lives and to apprehend or rather to be apprehended by the beauty of God's grace the abiding basis of our being and well being What has been written in this book reveals the heartbeat of a mentor who earnestly hungers for divine beauty and holiness a mentor whose hunger God eagerly fulfills just as he promises and a mentor who wishes this same fulfillment to happen for readers The basic assumption in this book is this a faith that is worth believing is a faith that is worth living and thus worth commending The book is also an exercise of faith seeking understanding understanding only God could supply It is written with the hope that it will lead readers from knowing God to loving him to enjoying him and finally to proclaiming him so that others will be brought into the orbit of God's inestimable grace Not until our hearts which God's heart touches touch the heart of others is our ministry complete and our life found pleasing to God

Preaching as a Social Act Arthur Van Seters, 1988 An excellent set of essays each exploring the sociological nature of preaching Setting the sermon and the congregation each within the larger social frame many of the essays cover the relationship of discourse rhetor audience speaking feedback language action

I Believe in Preaching John Stott, 2014-03-13 Is preaching dead or at least dying In a digital age where congregations have unprecedented access to resources do we still need sermons John Stott's I BELIEVE IN PREACHING has been essential reading for ministers students and lay preachers for over three decades Its message is as relevant today as ever I do believe in preaching I believe that nothing is better calculated to restore health and vitality to the Church or to lead its members into maturity in Christ than a recovery of true biblical contemporary preaching John Stott This edition also contains a brand new introduction from the original series editor Michael Green

Sermons preached (at St. George's hall, Langham place) during 1873 Charles Voysey, 1874

A Cross-Shattered Church Stanley Hauerwas, 2009-07-01 In this work eminent theologian Stanley Hauerwas shows how the sermon is the best context for doing good theology He writes I am convinced that the recovery of the sermon as the context for theological reflection is crucial if Christians are to negotiate the world in which we find ourselves The book includes seventeen sermons preached by Hauerwas which he considers his best theological work and hopes exemplify the work of theology The sermons are divided into four sections seeing saying living and events Titles range from Believing Is Seeing and Was It Fitting for Jesus to Die on a Cross to Only Fear Can Drive Out Fear and To Be Made Human Each sermon includes where and when it was preached and references relevant Scripture passages

EXCERPT I have increasingly come to the recognition that one of the most satisfying contexts for doing the work of theology is in sermons That should not be surprising because throughout Christian history at least until recently the sermon was one of the primary places in which the work of theology was done For the work of theology is first and foremost to exposit scripture That modern theology has become less and less scriptural that modern theology has often tried to appear as a form of philosophy is but an indication of its alienation from its proper work I am therefore making these sermons available because I think they are not only my best theological work but because I hope they exemplify the work of theology
