Roy Jenkins A Retrospective:

Roy Jenkins Andrew Adonis, Keith Thomas, 2004 Roy Jenkins was a dominating figure in British politics across the four decades before his death in 2003 with an impact and legacy greater than many prime ministers of the period These essays by friends and associates of Roy Jenkins from every phase of his life chart his remarkable career with insight anecdote and empathy Each contributor writes from a close and unique relationship with their subject Europas Einigung Wilfried Loth, 2025-01-13 Wie ist die europäische Union entstanden Was hält sie zusammen Und wie kann sie den aktuellen Herausforderungen gerecht werden Wilfried Loth einer der führenden Europa Historiker zeichnet in diesem Standardwerk die Entwicklung der europäischen Einigung nach von den Anfängen nach dem Zweiten Weltkrieg bis zur Reaktion auf den russischen Angriffskrieg in der Ukraine und die aktuellen Angriffe auf die westliche Demokratie Diese dritte aktualisierte und erweiterte Neuausgabe führt die Leserinnen und Leser erneut bis zur unmittelbaren Gegenwart und ermöglicht ihnen damit ein historisch begründetes Urteil über die Zukunft der EU Mit der respektgebietenden Kombination von aufgeklärter Sachlichkeit und nie versiegender Empathie begleitet Wilfried Loth Weg und Werk der europäischen Einigungsgeschichte Wilfried Loths neues Buch gehört in jede anständige Bibliothek Ludger Kohnhardt Politische Vierteljahrsschrift Britain and the formation of the Gulf States Shohei Sato, 2016-05-01 This book offers new insight into the end of the British Empire in the Middle East It takes a fresh look at the relationship between Britain and the Gulf rulers at the height of the British Empire and how its effects are still felt internationally today Over the last four decades the Persian Gulf region has gone through oil shocks wars and political changes and yet the basic entities of the southern Gulf states have remained largely in place How did this resilient system come about for such seemingly contested societies Drawing on extensive multi archival research in the British American and Gulf archives this book illuminates a series of negotiations between British diplomats and the Gulf rulers that inadvertently led Bahrain Qatar and the UAE to take their current shapes The story addresses the crucial question of self determination versus better together a dilemma pertinent to anyone interested in the transformation of the modern world The European Commission of the Twenty-First Century Hussein Kassim, John Peterson, Michael W. Bauer, Sara Connolly, Renaud Dehousse, Liesbet Hooghe, Andrew Thompson, 2013-06-27 The European Commission is arguably the world's most powerful international administration It plays a central role in the political system of the European Union The Commission is a permanent presence in the life of the member states but its influence is felt far beyond their borders Viewed historically as the motor of European integration the Commission is the subject of intense controversy It is portrayed frequently as technocratic monolithic and unaccountable but also as fragmented and weakly led According to accepted wisdom it is populated by career bureaucrats who want only to expand the competencies of the Union and therefore their own power This book tests these views It asks Who are the people who work for the organization What are their educational and professional backgrounds What do officials believe about the role of the Commission in the EU today and whether the

Union should have more or less power What leads them to choose to pursue a career in the Commission and how do they navigate its complexities How does the Barroso Commission compare to previous Commissions How harmonious are relations between cabinets and the services What has been the impact on the Commission of reform and of the big bang enlargement Co authored by an international team of researchers this book draws on original data from the largest attitudinal survey ever conducted by independent researchers inside the Commission as well as a structured programme of interviews with senior officials It provides an authoritative account of the European Commission of the twenty first century Order, Order! Ben Wright,2016-06-01 Britain s first Prime Minister Robert Walpole smuggled wine up the Thames with the help of the Navy Tony Blair confessed that a stiff drink and half a bottle of wine a night had become a helpful crutch while in office Joseph Stalin flushed out traitors with vodka The disintegration of Richard Nixon and Boris Yeltsin was largely down to drink Winston Churchill was famous for his drinking often taking a whisky and soda first thing in the morning and champagne ritually with dinner But why did these politicians drink and what was their tippie of choice How did drinking shape the decisions they made Ben Wright political correspondent for the BBC explores the history of alcohol within politics from the debauched drinking practices of eighteenth century ministers to today often based on his own experiences supping with politicians in Westminster bars With exclusive interviews and in depth research Order Order uses alcohol as a lens through which to meet a remarkable cast of politicians to understand their times and discover what drove them to drink A story of boozy bon viveurs but with many casualties too and the complexity of the human condition and the pull of the bottle

Getting Out Visiting Fellow Thomas C Guiney,2018-09-19 Getting Out offers the first systematic account of the evolution of early release as a public policy concern in England and Wales between 1960 and 1995 At a time when public discourse on crime has focused to a significant degree upon the powers of the police and the sentence of the court this book seeks to turn current debate on its head and examine the circumstances in which policy makers have found it desirable to reduce the custodial element of a prison sentence and return prisoners to the community Drawing upon an extensive period of archival research and interviews with key decision makers this book considers three defining periods of reform that illuminate the complex ideas trade offs and moments of political controversy that have shaped this secretive and little understood area of penal policy The book argues that early release is inherently bound up with prevailing societal justifications for punishment and the appropriate use of imprisonment within our liberal democratic system It draws attention to the uneasy constitutional balance of power between the judiciary and the executive and reflects upon the administrative task of governing large captive populations where the hopes and expectations of inmates do not always align with the interests of prison authorities or the community at large In so doing Getting Out challenges widespread assumptions about penal change and shows how government policy has been shaped by the legacy of past political choices the organisation of central government departments and the fluid balance of power within Whitehall Tribune for Victory and Socialism ,2004 The European Commission, 1958-72 Michel Dumoulin, 2007 The ink on the Treaties of Rome of 25 March 1957 was hardly dry when the Commission set itself up for business on 1 January 1958 in Brussels with an agenda covering all areas of the economic life of the six founder countries Germany France Italy and the three Benelux countries of Belgium Luxembourg and the Netherlands The 15 year period from 1958 to 1972 covered by this work corresponds to the beginnings of the European Commission whose first task was to come up with practical means of achieving the treaties main objective the establishment of a common market taking as its point of departure the general interest of the entire Community of six Member States Forged by men and women with often very different backgrounds the history of the first few years is one of crises but also of achievements which shaped the major milestones of European integration in almost every area Imagination long term vision enthusiasm and tenacity seem to have been the great virtues of the people working for the young European institution at that time By piecing together over a number of years the recollections of former Commission officials a consortium of university teachers under the direction of Professor Michel Dumoulin of the Catholic University of Louvain at Louvain la Neuve has at last made it possible to tell the story of what happened during those early days This is a new edition of the book originally published in 2007 A similar project has since resulted in the publication of a book about the history of the Commission between 1973 and 1986 Editor Callaghan's Journey to Downing Street Paul J. Deveney, 2010-09-30 Introduction The Swap From Treasury to Home Office A Political Opening The NEC and Nigeria Setting the Stage In Place of Strife Fleet Street A Special Relationship Northern Ireland Image or Substance In Opposition Book Writing and Europe The Spectator, 2004

When Arthur Met Maggie Patrick Hannan, 2006 For a year in the 1980s Arthur Scargill and Margaret Thatcher were on opposite sides of a conflict that decided some of the most important questions in contemporary Britain yet they never met in person The British miners strike of 1984 85 was central to the process of bringing traditional British politics to an end including the end of the class war the creation of New Labour and the wrecking of the Conservative party This book explores the ways in which small decisions accidents delays mistakes and premature deaths all played their part in bringing British politics to its present condition State of Emergency Dominic Sandbrook, 2010 In the early 1970s Britain seemed to be tottering on the brink of the abyss Under Edward Heath the optimism of the Sixties had become a distant memory This book recreates the gaudy schizophrenic atmosphere of the early Seventies the world of Enoch Powell and Tony Benn David Bowie and Brian Clough Germaine Greer and Mary Whitehouse
