Royal Summer:

Bulletin ,1905 The Sculpture of Gertrude Hermes Jane Hill, Gertrude Hermes, 2011 A graduate of Leon Underwood's Brook Green School of Art in London Gertrude Hermes 1901-83 trained as a painter and sculptor Hermes and her husband Blair Hughes Stanton who she met at Brook Green went on to become leading lights in the early twentieth century's wood engraving revival Although their marriage was short lived their exuberant visual inventions for Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress and T. E. Lawrence's Seven Pillars of Wisdom Brought them critical acclaim Much has been written about Hermes' career as a wood engraver In contrast her contribution as a sculptor has been somewhat eclipsed until now The Sculpture of Gertrude Hermes presents for the first time a full analysis of the artist's entire sculptural oeuvre Along with a comprehensive catalogue of Hermes' sculpture Jane Hill provides a full account of the artist's life in the context of her career as a sculptor What results is a picture of a pioneering spirit who created busts and heads functional designs decorative work and reliefs that are dynamic and unpredictable Featuring over 140 images The Sculpture of Gertrude Hermes is a groundbreaking study of an artist so long associated with one art form This book redresses the imbalance and creates a new and fresh perspective on an important female artist of the twentieth century Publisher's website Bulletin United States.
