The Discount Merchandiser, 1993

The Journey's End Michael D Connelly, 2023-04-04 In the tradition of Atul Gawande's Being Mortal this compassionate work helps individuals develop a more accepting view of dying while teaching them what to expect and how to navigate the healthcare system at the end of life In elderhood the health care system has a narrow view of how to provide care It focuses on extending a patient's life at all costs with an over reliance on machines and procedures instead of caring holistically for the person Accordingly many of us will likely spend our final weeks in long term care facilities or an ICU Dying at home peacefully and surrounded by family is almost impossible in our world and our fear of death is a major contributor to this impossibility Fittingly the central idea of this book is that in old age or when facing a terminal diagnosis it is more important to understand your life rather than to extend it While this may seem simple its implications are profound A natural death means accepting that at some point we are old enough or sick enough to die In our cynical and overly clinical age it is difficult to reflect on the meaning of one's life but that kind of honest introspection is exactly what we need Accordingly The Journey's End seeks to help people manage their healthcare their expectations and their decisions in the final phase of life

Blindsight Matt Johnson, Prince Ghuman, 2020-05-19 Ever notice that all watch ads show 10:10 as the time Or that all fast food restaurants use red or yellow in their logos Or that certain stores are always having a sale You may not be aware of these details yet they've been influencing you all along Every time you purchase swipe or click marketers are able to more accurately predict your behavior These days brands know more about you than you know about yourself Blindsight is here to change that With eye opening science engaging stories and fascinating real world examples neuroscientist Matt Johnson and marketer Prince Ghuman dive deep into the surprising relationship between brains and brands In Blindsight they showcase how marketing taps every aspect of our mental lives covering the neuroscience of pain and pleasure emotion and logic fear and safety attention and addiction and much more We like to think of ourselves as independent actors in control of our decisions but the truth is far more complicated Blindsight will give you the ability to see the unseeable when it comes to marketing so that you can consume on your own terms On the surface you will learn how the brain works and how brands design for it But peel back a layer and you'll find a sharper image of your psychology reflected in your consumer behavior This book will change the way you view not just branding but yourself too
