Find a Way or Make One Alma J. Carten, 2020-09-15 Clark Atlanta University Whitney M Young Jr School of Social Work was founded in 1920 in Atlanta Georgia as the Atlanta School of Social Work to prepare social workers for practice in underserved black neighborhoods Spearheaded by black scholars and progressive whites during an era of racial segregation 2020 marks its centennial as the first accredited social work program at a historically black college and university In this book social work professor Alma J Carten describes the School s transitions from its beginnings amid the pervasive racism sanctioned by Supreme Court rulings in the Dred Scott and Plessy v Ferguson cases through the decades of 20th century progressive civil rights reforms and into the new conservatism of the 21st century Referencing archival documents Carten illustrates the School s commitment to the democratic principles of the profession despite the blatant racism of the segregated South and the less visible structural inequalities following desegregation from which mainstream social work education was not immune The book describes the influence of iconic thought leaders on the School s culture and academic programs beginning with Jesse O Thomas s speech on the need for a black school of social work given from the segregated section of the 1920 National Conference on Social Work and including W E B DuBois Atlanta University Studies that pioneered the model of social progress powered by science E Franklin Frazier and Forrester B Washington who championed black social work and the integration of race critical content in the curriculum of all schools and Whitney M Young Jr who chastised social workers for their waning interest in advocacy for marginalized populations and encouraged them to become politically active Carten examines the evolution of the School within the context of changes in US social welfare policy CSWE accrediting standards and NASW Code of Ethics Highly readable the book brings to light the under reported contributions of HBCU social work programs to social work education and it thoughtfully engages with the School s efforts to legitimize the Afrocentric perspective and the humanistic values embraced by HBCU social work programs K and W Guide to

“Whatever It Is, I’m Against It” Brian Rosenberg,2023-09-14 PROSE Award Finalist An invigorating work that identifies obstructions to transformative change in higher education and offers paths to break through In Whatever It Is I m Against It president emeritus of Macalester College Brian Rosenberg draws on decades of higher education experience to expose the entrenched structures practices and cultures that inhibit meaningful postsecondary reform even as institutions face serious challenges to their financial and educational models A lively insider s account the book pinpoints factors that hinder the ability of U S colleges and universities to be creative and entrepreneurial amid calls to improve affordability access and equity for students

Through pithy personal stories of divisive town hall meetings multiyear college governance battles and attempts at curricular reform Rosenberg illustrates internal and external dynamics that impede institutional evolution Pressures such as declining enrollment escalating costs and an oversupply of PhDs in academia have long signaled a grave need for reform within a profession that as Rosenberg ruefully acknowledges lacks organizational flexibility depends greatly on reputation and ranking and retains traditions from the academic calendar to grading systems that have remained essentially the same for decades Rosenberg looks outside the U S system to find possible antidotes in innovative higher education models such as student centered and experiential learning approaches This thought provoking work offers ample evidence for presidents chancellors deans provosts and faculty to consider as they plan their missions to achieve institutional transformation

Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence in Higher Education Ahmed Odeh Al Jaber, 2022-09-01 Quality Assurance is not a new concept in the education sector in general and higher education in particular though it is becoming increasingly more relevant and important Higher education helps to improve an individual s quality of life by enabling them to inflate their knowledge and expertise to grasp abstract concepts and theories and to raise their awareness of the world and their community and as such the assurance of quality is becoming more pivotal in the whole education process There is no simple definition of the concept of quality in education though numerous models and theories have been devised Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence of Higher Education is a new episode of the Quality Assurance perception in higher education which identifies the quality culture and orientation from the beginning integrating crucial factors to build a pyramid of higher education excellence The book compares concepts from the main theories of Quality Assurance management and control when they are applied to educational systems in higher education The book also presents a new model of excellence in higher education Excellence is an architecture of building blocks that comes with process performance effectiveness harmony and collaboration which should be incorporated in a quality oriented concept of a sustainable excellence of higher education The model integrates four main facets the Educational System Quality Assurance Managing and Control Strategic Planning and Globalization Also presented are international best practices in quality assurance in higher education from Japan and Finland

The Dublin University Calendar Trinity College (Dublin, Ireland), 1892 Educating Inequality Robert Samuels, 2017-07-06 Politicians and school officials often argue that higher education is the solution to many of our social and economic problems Educating Inequality argues that in order to reduce inequality and enhance social mobility public policies are needed to revamp the financial aid system and increase the number of good jobs Exploring topics such as the fairness of the current social system the focus on individual competition in an unequal society and democracy and capitalism in higher education this important book seeks to uncover the major myths that shape how people view higher education and its relation to the economy Looking to models that generate economic mobility and social equality this book advocates a broader vision for public higher education to promote universal equality and global awareness Sessional Papers Ontario.
