Winning on Purpose Fred Reichheld, Darci Darnell, Maureen Burns, 2021-12-07 Great leaders embrace a higher purpose to win The Net Promoter System shines as their guiding star Few management ideas have spread so far and wide as the Net Promoter System NPS Since its conception almost two decades ago by customer loyalty guru Fred Reichheld thousands of companies around the world have adopted it from industrial titans such as Mercedes Benz and Cummins to tech giants like Apple and Amazon to digital innovators such as Warby Parker and Peloton Now Reichheld has raised the bar yet again In Winning on Purpose he demonstrates that the primary purpose of a business should be to enrich the lives of its customers Why Because when customers feel this love they come back for more and bring their friends generating good profits This is NPS 3.0 and it puts a new take on the age old Golden Rule treat customers the way you would want a loved one treated at the heart of enduring business success As the compelling examples in this book illustrate companies with superior NPS consistently deliver higher returns to shareholders across a wide array of industries But winning on purpose isn't easy Reichheld also explains why many NPS practitioners achieve just a small fraction of the system's full potential and he presents the newest thinking and best practices for doing NPS right He unveils the Earned Growth Rate EGR the first reliable complementary accounting measure that can truly leverage the power of NPS With keen insight and moving personal stories Reichheld advances the thinking and practice of NPS Winning on Purpose is your indispensable guide for inspiring customer love within your own teams and using Net Promoter to achieve both personal and business success Media & Entertainment Law Ursula Smartt, 2019-11-12 The fourth edition of Media and Entertainment Law has been fully updated analysing some of the most recent judgments in media law from across the United Kingdom such as Cliff Richard v the BBC Max Schrems v Facebook and the Irish Information Commissioner developments on the right to be forgotten NT1 and NT2 and ABC v Daily Telegraph Sir Philip Green The book's two main themes are freedom of expression and an individual's right to privacy Regulation of the communication industries is covered extensively including discussion of the print press and its online editions following Leveson traditional broadcasting regulations for terrestrial TV and radio as well as media activities on converged devices such as tablets iPads mobile phone devices and on demand services Intellectual property law specifically copyright in the music and entertainment industries is also explored in the book's later chapters Also new to this edition are sections on A focus on freedom of expression its philosophical foundations the struggles of those who have fought for it and the varied ways in which the courts interpret freedom of expression regarding the taking and publishing of photographs The right to be forgotten data breaches and the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR The media's increasing access to the courts particularly when considering the privacy of those who are suspected of sexual offences Press regulators broadcasting and advertising regulations and film and video regulations Election and party political broadcast regulations with a focus on social media and recent election fraud The emergence of online music distribution services internet radio and free digital streaming music services and their effect on the music industry The fourth edition also features a variety of pedagogical features to encourage critical analysis of case law and one's own beliefs Live Stock Report, 1896 Time's Up! Paul Dunn, Ronald J. Baker, 2022-11-22 Put values and value over volume with a professional services subscription model Professional firms are built on relationships But you wouldn't know it by observing their predominant business model a model centered on selling transactions and inputs not outcomes that deepen and strengthen relationships Time's Up offers you a guide to building a more valuable firm one where relationships and lifetime customer value are at the center of how you create and capture value You'll learn how to Create customer lifetime values that far exceed acquisition and retention costs Move customer relationships to the center of your firm Leverage the collective knowledge of your customers Elevate customers from where they are to their desired future by providing transformations where the customer is the product Only uncommon offerings command uncommon prices Time's Up introduces you to a revolutionary new business model that transforms your firm your teams and your results with the customer right at the center of the process The Aisles Have Eyes Joseph Turow, 2017-01-17 The author of Media Today offers a trenchant timely and troubling account of retailers data mining in store tracking and predictive analytics The Philadelphia Inquirer By one expert's prediction within twenty years half of Americans will have body implants that tell retailers how they feel about specific products as they browse their local stores The notion may be outlandish but it reflects executives' drive to understand shoppers in the aisles with the same obsessive detail that they track us online In fact a hidden surveillance revolution is already taking place inside brick and mortar stores where Americans still do most of their buying Drawing on his interviews with retail executives analysis of trade publications and experiences at insider industry meetings advertising and digital studies expert Joseph Turow pulls back the curtain on these trends showing how a new hyper competitive generation of merchants including Macy's Target and Walmart is already using data mining in store tracking and predictive analytics to change the way we buy undermine our privacy and define our reputations Eye opening and timely Turow's book is essential reading to understand the future of shopping Turow shows shopping today to be an exercise in unwitting self revelation and not only online The Wall Street Journal Thoroughly researched and clearly presented with detailed evidence and fascinating peeks inside the retail industry Much of this information is startling and even chilling particularly when Turow shows how retail data tracking can enable discrimination and societal stratification Publishers Weekly Revealing Valuable reading for shoppers and retailers alike Kirkus Reviews St. Louis Daily Market Reporter and Merchants Exchange Price Current, 1899 Pacific Rural Press, 1892 Automotive Daily News, 1980 Daily Commercial Letter, 1894
