Basic Principles for the Education of Language-minority Students California. Office of Bilingual Bicultural Education, 1982 Key Developments in Bilingual Education and Bilingualism, 2025-10-16 This reader presents key contributions from the past three decades of bilingualism research demonstrating the trajectory of key themes and areas of study Celebrating 30 years of Multilingual Matters Bilingual Education and Bilingualism book series the chapters offer an overview of key developments in the field to date The book focuses on four strands which have emerged over the course of the series bilingual children and family language policy multilingualism in the classroom bilingual immersion education and language policy and advocacy This reader offers students and researchers a deeper understanding of how the field has evolved current issues in bilingual education and the implications for both practice and future research Cognitive Style in Early Education Olivia N. Saracho, 2017-09-13 Cognitive style a psychological construct characterizes individual differences in styles of perceiving remembering thinking and judging Originally published in 1990 this volume explores important findings emerging from contemporary research on cognitive style in young children and the implications for classroom practice at the time Suggestions are provided for using knowledge of cognitive style in classroom settings to match learning tasks to cognitive style and to develop cognitive flexibility Educators can use knowledge of young children's and teachers' cognitive styles to improve the quality of education and educational opportunities for all children Dual Language Education Kathryn J. Lindholm-Leary, 2001-01-01 Dual language education is a program that combines language minority and language majority students for instruction through two languages This book provides the conceptual background for the program and discusses major implementation issues Research findings summarize language proficiency and achievement outcomes from 8000 students at 20 schools along with teacher and parent attitudes      Crossing Cultural Borders Concha Delgado-Gaitan, Henry Trueba, 2022-11-16 Crossing Cultural Borders 1991 examines the day to day interaction of immigrant children with adults siblings and peers in the home school and community at large as these families demonstrate their skill in using their culture to survive in a new society Children of Mexican and Central American immigrant families in Secoya crossed a national border and continue to cross linguistic social and cultural borders that separate the home school and outside world      Myth Or Reality? Henry T. Trueba, Lilly Cheng, Kenji Ima, 2012-10-12 Presents the reality of Asian successes and problems and challenges faced by immigrants in the USA Case studies and episodes are presented and the book shows data that calibrates the differential success of various Asian populations and the need to assist those who are less successful      Bilingual Education Ofelia García, Colin Baker, 2007 The book contains a comprehensive selection of outstanding and influential articles on bilingual education in the USA and the rest of the world It is designed for instructors and students with questions and activities based on each of the 19 readings for students to engage in active learning

Quality Education for All Dean H. Nielson, William K. Cummings, 2014-04-08 Modern education conceived in the late 18th century and expanded in the early 19th century to promote enlightenment and social equality may finally be nearing its institutional limit Over the past decade following nearly a century of steady gains there has been little further advancement in modern education The modern system has proved effective in serving the interests of the established core of contemporary society but ineffective in reaching for the periphery The contributors to this volume offer various corrective approaches to correct this state of affairs      Making Schools Work for Underachieving Minority Students Joan L. Herman, 1990-06-27 A welcome addition to the new literature on the disadvantaged student The editors have skillfully brought together a provocative mix of keynote addresses panel presentations informal interactions Recommended for larger collections in education upper division undergraduate level and above Choice      The Curriculum Studies Reader David J. Flinders, Stephen J. Thornton, 2009 Grounded in historical essays this volume provides context for the growing field of curriculum studies reflecting on dominant trends in the field and sampling the best of current scholarship      Between Worlds David E. Freeman, Yvonne S. Freeman, 1994 Exploring the worlds inside and outside the school this work looks at second language acquisition theory and examines social and cultural factors that affect the school performance of language minority students Classroom examples put the theory into practice and promote cultural sensitivity      The Educational Welcome of Latinos in the New South Edmund T. Hamann, 2003 This is the tale of the origin emergence and transformation of an unorthodox binational partnership the Georgia Project that brought a Mexican university to aid a Georgia school district that suddenly found itself hosting thousands of Latino newcomers It is also the tale of educational leaders evolving understandings of what they needed to do This book tells the particular story of the Georgia Project a partnership initiated between leading citizens a school district and a Mexican university to help Dalton Georgia the Carpet Capital of the World as it suddenly found itself host to the first majority Latino school district in Georgia The book focuses on the evolving understandings of six early leaders of this initiative and their resultant actions It tries to carefully situate these particular actors within the larger swirl of conflicting scripts and public sphere messages regarding who Latino newcomers are what they want and merited and how the community should respond Acquiring a Kind of Passport Anne Louise DiPardo,1991
