Igniting Innovation Itzhak Goldberg,John Gabriel Goddard,Smita Kuriakose,Jean-Louis Racine,2011-09-22 Innovation and technology absorption are now firmly recognized as one of the main sources of economic growth for emerging and advanced economies alike International R D collaboration and FDI are critical and require government support programs specially financial ones United Nations Publications Catalogue ,2001 UNESCO science report UNESCO,2015-11-09 There are fewer grounds today than in the past to deplore a North South divide in research and innovation This is one of the key findings of the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 A large number of countries are now incorporating science technology and innovation in their national development agenda in order to make their economies less reliant on raw materials and more rooted in knowledge Most research and development R D is taking place in high income countries but innovation of some kind is now occurring across the full spectrum of income levels according to the first survey of manufacturing companies in 65 countries conducted by the UNESCO Institute for Statistics and summarized in this report For many lower income countries sustainable development has become an integral part of their national development plans for the next 10 20 years Among higher income countries a firm commitment to sustainable development is often coupled with the desire to maintain competitiveness in global markets that are increasingly leaning towards green technologies The quest for clean energy and greater energy efficiency now figures among the research priorities of numerous countries Written by more than 50 experts who are each covering the country or region from which they hail the UNESCO Science Report towards 2030 provides more country level information than ever before The trends and developments in science technology and innovation policy and governance between 2009 and mid 2015 described here provide essential baseline information on the concerns and priorities of countries that could orient the implementation and drive the assessment of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development in the years to come United Nations Documents Index United Nations,2004 The United Nations Documents Index provides information on documents and publications issued by United Nations offices worldwide The information is presented in nine sections covering the areas of documents and publications official records sales publications United Nations maps included in UN documents United Nations sheet maps United Nations document series symbols author index title index and subject index The Index is a two volume set Official Records ,1946 Нова література по соціал'ним і гуманітарним наукам ,2004 Asian Development Outlook ,2016 The Caucasian Tiger Saumya Mitra,2007 This publication examines the factors underlying Armenia's stellar economic growth record which has led to the country's emergence as a pre eminent reformer among the former Soviet republics It describes how Armenia created an environment of macroeconomic stability and pursued market economic reforms but its central focus is on the reform agenda of the future Therefore this book is intended not only as a case study of success in post Soviet economic transition but also as a candid piece of policy advice for the future Russia and Eurasia at the Crossroads Egor S. Stroeve, Leonid S. Bliakhman, Mikhail I. Krotov, 1999-09-15 A team of high ranking members from the CIS administration and economic experts analyses the market oriented transformations as well as specific features of the market evolving in the 12 states Using a wide range of statistical data the authors deal with industry agriculture the military industrial complex the scientific and social sphere finance and investment market infrastructure and international trade They develop a centrist concept for sustainable development and economic integration that offers the possibility of overcoming the current problems Provides Western readers with an insider view of the present situation and a wealth of valuable statistical data Summary of World Broadcasts ,2000 Innovation Performance Review of Tajikistan United Nations. Economic Commission for Europe,2015 This publication contains the outcomes of a policy advisory exercise that drew on the experience accumulated by the UNECE in the identification of good practices and policy lessons in the area of knowledge based development It provides a set of recommendations and policy options to stimulate innovation activity enhance innovation capacity and improve the overall efficiency of the national innovation system Journal of Public Affairs Education ,2006
