Schooling For Change Reinventing Education For Early Adolescents:

Schooling for Change Lorna Earl, Andy Hargreaves, Jim Ryan, 2013-02-01 Focusing on change and reform in secondary and elementary schools this book explores the possibilities for better schooling for early adolescents Encyclopedia of Adolescence Roger J.R. Levesque, 2014-07-08 The Encyclopedia of Adolescence breaks new ground as an important central resource for the study of adolescence Comprehensive in breadth and textbook in depth the Encyclopedia of Adolescence with entries presented in easy to access A to Z format serves as a reference repository of knowledge in the field as well as a frequently updated conduit of new knowledge long before such information trickles down from research to standard textbooks By making full use of Springer's print and online flexibility the Encyclopedia is at the forefront of efforts to advance the field by pushing and creating new boundaries and areas of study that further our understanding of adolescents and their place in society Substantively the Encyclopedia draws from four major areas of research relating to adolescence The first broad area includes research relating to Self Identity and Development in Adolescence This area covers research relating to identity from early adolescence through emerging adulthood basic aspects of development e.g biological cognitive social and foundational developmental theories In addition this area focuses on various types of identity gender sexual civic moral political racial spiritual religious and so forth The second broad area centers on Adolescents Social and Personal Relationships This area of research examines the nature and influence of a variety of important relationships including family peer friends sexual and romantic as well as significant nonparental adults The third area examines Adolescents in Social Institutions This area of research centers on the influence and nature of important institutions that serve as the socializing contexts for adolescents These major institutions include schools religious groups justice systems medical fields cultural contexts media legal systems economic structures and youth organizations Adolescent Mental Health constitutes the last major area of research This broad area of research focuses on the wide variety of human thoughts actions and behaviors relating to mental health from psychopathology to thriving Major topic examples include deviance violence crime pathology DSM normalcy risk victimization disabilities flow and positive youth development School as Community Gail Furman, 2012-02-01 An increasingly important and appealing concept for school renewal is that of school as community While community holds multiple promises for schools little is known about the practice of community in schools This collection furthers our understanding about the nature of school community its practice in public schools and the role of leadership in this practice Of particular importance is the question of how community can be created and sustained in K 12 public schools with highly diverse populations Curriculum Flexibility and Autonomy Promoting a Thriving Learning Environment OECD, 2024-08-19 For the first time the OECD Future of Education and Skills 2030 project conducted comprehensive curriculum analyses through the co creation of new knowledge with a wide range of stakeholders including policy makers academic experts school leaders teachers NGOs social partners and most importantly students This report is one of six in a series presenting the first ever comparative data on curriculum at the content level It summarises existing literature explores trends in curriculum adaptation addresses challenges and strategies for effective implementation and offers policy insights drawn from real world experiences of curriculum reforms This report explores curriculum flexibility and autonomy in global education systems assessing how curricula adapt to diverse educational needs and contexts It maps the stakeholders who influence decision making on curriculum flexibility and discusses dilemmas faced by policymakers and practitioners between curriculum prescription and autonomy Drawing on international examples it illustrates how flexible curricula can enhance teaching effectiveness and inclusivity It emphasises key strategies such as enhanced teacher training and collaborative policymaking necessary for flexible curricula to meet educational needs It also identifies critical factors such as clear goals accountability mechanisms and societal support which are crucial for successful curriculum implementation

Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step

The Primary School in Changing Times Tony Townsend, 2002-09-11 Australian system is similar to UK so will be a cross over market International interest in restructuring and management of schools High calibre contributors from across Australia

Reviews of National Policies for Education: Improving Lower Secondary Schools in Norway 2011

OECD, 2011-06-23 This report develops comparative knowledge on lower secondary education across OECD countries and tailors it to the context of an OECD country Norway

Restructuring and Quality: Issues for Tomorrow's Schools Tony Townsend, 2002-11-01 The restructuring of schools systems across the world has been controversial Have reforms been driven by a desire to cut educational budgets or the need to improve the quality of educational provision This book explores the restructuring movement with a particular emphasis on how decentralisation of power has affected the quality of education It provides a broad and international picture of educational reform

Education, Globalization, and Social Change Hugh Lauder, 2006 Education is seen as central to economic competitiveness the reduction of poverty and inequality and environmental sustainability The editors have selected key writings that examine the social and economic limits and possibilities of education in addressing these fundamental problems This new reader establishes the field of sociology of education with a particular focus on papers that analyse the nature and extent of globalization in education A general introduction presents the key concepts in the sociology of education and outlines the major theories and debates especially in relation to globalization Each section is accompanied by a part opener explaining and contextualizing the readings within a larger educational and sociological context National Forum of Educational Administration and Supervision ,2000

National Forum of Educational Administration and Supervision Journal ,2000 ERS Bulletin Educational Research Service (Arlington, Va.),1998 Rethinking Educational Change with Heart and Mind Andy Hargreaves,1997 Why does successful enduring change beyond a few isolated schools continue to elude us The fundamental problem says editor Hargreaves is that educational change is more complex and controversial than the change literature has recognized In this book Hargreaves and the other contributors move the dialogue about change beyond the technical aspects to three essential areas of teaching learning and leadership that have received only limited attention the passion purpose and politics of change Each chapter looks realistically but also optimistically at many of the complexities of change In the first chapter editor Hargreaves discusses the need for greater depth and breadth in our educational change efforts In the next few chapters authors explore the vital role of parents and communities in educational change efforts Subsequent chapters stress the value of involving students in school improvement suggest practical ideas for managing time differently and discuss the importance of clear measurable goals Other authors look at alternative assessment practices with a corresponding view of accountability Additional topics include collaborative action research among teachers in their own schools around issues of professional interest to them as well as ways that even wider collaborations or networks foster positive change In another chapter the authors ask whether what we know about school improvement applies to schools that are failing or seriously troubled They examine the political as well as technical issues involved in designating a school as failing or troubled arguing for more sophisticated ways of designation The closing chapter expands on a theme of the opening one the place of emotion in educational change by discussing a second theme that of hope without which there is no commitment or optimism that children s lives can be made better International Journal of Educational Reform ,2003 Life at School Phillida Salmon,1998 For many children the happiest days of their lives are not spent in school Psychologist Phillida Salmon questions the basis upon which schools are founded critically analyses the assumptions that society makes to uphold the current education system American Educational Research Association Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,2003 Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,1999 Adolescence ,2003 Annual Meeting Program - American Educational Research Association American Educational Research Association,1997 Assessment As Learning Lorna M.
